Many Events Slated by Garden Groups for This Spring

Mrs. Veraon C. Cenn of Lone Pine court opened her home on March 23, to a meeting of the executive board of the Bloomfield Hills branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. It was announced that there are many events slated for this spring.

Currently there is the flower and garden exhibition now at Convention Hall with Mrs. Josephine Collins of Lone Pine road representing the Hills branch.

Beginning April 4 at 10:30 a.m., a series of flower arrangement classes will be held at the Brady lane home of Mrs. Marcus Cunningham.

The Club will participate in the exhibition slated for the Art Museum on April 25 and 26 and floral arrangements will be entered by a group of members under the direction of Mrs. W. G. Ferguson.

Tentative plans for the garden bridge party scheduled for May were discussed and tickets for this event can be obtained from Mrs. Horace P. Shaw.

On April 11, the Bloomfield Hills group joins the Birmingham branch of the association in sponsoring a program to be held in the Community House, Mrs. Maud Jacobs of South Carrollton, Ky., nationally known horticulturist, will be the speaker.

Following the program, club members will be guests of the Birmingham branch for tea.

"I Remember Mama" Smoothly Produced, Skillfully Acted

By Mrs. Donovan Gray

An attentive audience was rendered by an excellent production of the sentimental "I Remember Mama" presented Friday and Saturday evenings by the Village Players.

The production was skillfully directed by Mrs. Anthony Daley. The fact that the large cast moved smoothly through the vicissitudes of "Mama" was a tribute to her ability as well as to the talent of the players.

In a play of this type, a series of sketches, with nearly every scene introduced by a narrator, the many incidents and flashbacks can easily violate the mood of an audience but handled adroitly as it was each period seemed to flow right into the next. The play called for 29 curtains. This presented a special problem in production and credit for adept handling of the situation must be given to Ray Amerman and Anthony Daley who were responsible for curtains and lights.

Moment Musicale

The Moment Musicale will meet at the home of Alice Kohler, 538 Southfield, on Tuesday, April 6 at 7:30 p.m. On the program are piano numbers by Cherry Harris, Kathleen Berry, David Morgan, Carol Black and Judy Millman. There will also be a flute solo by Sandra Pula, who will be accompanied by Maria Rising.

Church Supper Club

Members of the St. James Supper Club met last night at the church. The Lenten program which highlighted the evening was headed by the Rev. Harold E. Towne, April 27 has been scheduled as the date of the next meeting and the theme of the program will be announced later.

It has no dues, and meets every other Monday. All in the community who are interested in attending its meetings are invited to do so.

Kingswood Alumni Seeks Girls for Scholarship Award

Birmingham girls wishing to apply for the benefits of the Ellen Wallace Memorial scholarship at Kingswood, are asked to get their applications to Mrs. James B. Bragaw, 1033 Kennesaw, at once. She may be called further for information regarding the attitude examinations which are to be given Saturday, April 2. Applicants are also considered from Detroit and Pontiac.

The scholarship was founded in memory of the late Ellen Wallace who was well known throughout this area. Awards are granted to qualified and deserving girls based on their academic record, personal qualifications, special talents and financial needs.

Sponsored by the Kingswood School Alumni association, four girls from this vicinity have already enjoyed the facilities and educational advantages which the scholarship offers. The recipient is selected usually from among tenth grade students, and receives the funds for one year, unless her ability is deemed worthy of further assistance.

It has been brought out that academic standards are considered second to the personality of the applicant. She must be a typical "all-round American girl" interested in sports, good in her studies, and should possess some talent which can be developed for her benefit by careful training and coaching.
