Localites to Model
In Stephens Show
April 2 in Detroit

Birmingham women will drive to Detroit in a regular cavalcade to the annual Spring Fashion Show and bridge presented by the Stephens College Alumnae Club of Detroit at 1:30 p.m. April 2 in the Crystal Ballroom of the Masonic Temple.

Fashions for all ages will be presented with most of the interest going to the young sons and daughters of Stephens alumnae who will model the junior Easter fashions and to the clothes which will be shown especially for the more matronly and mature figures.

All proceeds of the show will go to the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

specifically for rheumatic fever victims in Detroit suburbs.

Will Model

Miss Nancy Waggoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Waggoner and Miss Ginger Bachus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Bachus will be among the 15 young models. It will be their third time to model for their mothers' annual event in the world of fashion.

The committee in charge of the show lists among its members Birmingham alumnae, Miss Ann McDonald, Miss Joyce Beyster, Mrs. Robert E. Borden, Mrs. David H. Johnston and Mrs. Glenn C. Waggoner of Lakeview drive who may be contacted for tickets.

John Phillip Sousa, world famous band leader and composer of "Stars and Stripes Forever," joined the U. S. Marine Band as second trombone player when he was 13 years old.

First Blouses of Spring

Just what the occasion calls for—fragile batiste and crisp cotton confections with their share of lace and embroidery—or color—phantasy tie prints so simple, so smart with their trim Johnny collars or cardigan necklines for jewelry backdrops. So enchanting for Spring, you'll want them all.

The Saratoga Chest

WHEN the young 17th Century Britisher started to take up law and enrolled as a student at the Inn of Court, it was customary for him to place in his apartment a small chest of drawers of traditional design. In this "bachelor's chest" would be stowed his routine belongings, as well as the scented mementoes of his romantic conquests! Quite typical is the SARATOGA chest in Adirondack Knotty Pine, in a pleasing hand-polished finish... as appropriate in the hall or living room as in the intimate quarters of a bachelor's bedroom.
