

Miss Nancy Allen Becomes Bride of John C. Munger

The First Methodist church was the setting Friday for the candle-light nuptials of Miss Nancy M. Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Allen of Townsend street and John C. Munger. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Gravin of Yosemite avenue. The Rev. Arnold F. Kunkel officiated at the double ring rites which were performed before an altar of white magnolias and stocks.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in white slipper satin. The dress was cut with a low round neckline and a lace yoke, a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt which swept into a short train. A tiara trimmed with seedpearls in a scallop design held the finger-ring veil of illusion and the bridal bouquet was made up of a spray of white gardenias and sweet peas.

Mrs. Thomas F. White of Birmingham was matron of honor and Mrs. Phyllis Jones, also of Birmingham, served as bridesmaid. Both were gowned in apple green moire of ballet length styled with lace insertions on the bodice. They wore lace mitts and white bonnets trimmed with lace and carried a spray of white daisies. Young Marjorie White, in white organza with an eyelet yoke and wearing a moire bonnet, carried a basket of yellow daisies. She preceded the bridal party to the altar as flower girl.

James F. Munger acted as best man and the ushers were Mel Allen, house of Beverly Hills; Robert E. Erwin, Howard Hat and Thomas F. White, all of Birmingham.

For her daughter's wedding, Townsend.
