

Pet Parade to Begin at One O'Clock on May 21

Birmingham youngsters by now are probably excitedly eyeing the date of May 21 when they'll line up and vie for prizes in the annual Pet Parade sponsored by St. James Church. Arrangements for the parade are being made by St. Elizabeth's Guild with Mrs. A. Phillip Streeter as chairman. There will be 20 prizes for the best entered to run from May 21 to 27. Mrs. Warren DeSief is in charge of this.

Food, Movies

Mrs. Charles Lewis, chairman, and members of St. Agnes Guild will have the hot dog, frost bite and soft drink concession. Children's movies and a bake sale are to be given by St. Anne's Guild with Mrs. Charles Renfrew as chairman. Mrs. Edward Dingler will supervise the fish pond and candy bar booth for St. Catherine's Guild.

The sale of aprons and smocks for which St. Mary's Guild is well-known will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Buck; St. Peter's Guild will feature a white elephant, booth, baked goods and popcorn balls with Mrs. Thomas Reaney as chairman.

The annual Spring Festival will open at 10:30 a.m. on the 21st and is sponsored by the seven Guilds of the church under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Owen L. Andrews who is being assisted by Mrs. Edward Tucker. The pony rides are under the supervision of the Men's Club.

Antiques, Model Ships, Imported Shawls are Displayed in Hobby Show

The new and the old, and the east and the west vie for interest when the Senior Activities Group held its hobby and antiques show in the Ranch Room of the Community House recently.

Among the items exhibited were quilts made by Mrs. S. V. Crockett and Mrs. L. S. McKenzie. Miss Carr attended Hillsdale College where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and was graduated from the Detroit Yacht Club. Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Carr of Clarkston, formerly of Birmingham, revealed the engagement of their daughter, Mary Alice to Alex McLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Galton of Algonac, formerly of Grosse Pointe.

From across the sea were hand embroidered shawls and finets scarves brought from Granada, Spain, by Mrs. D. J. Howlett. Mrs. Ralph Miller had in her lovely collection of Chinese linens a beautiful dessert set of sheer grass linen.

Former Resident Engaged to Marry

At a family dinner party in the Southern Seminary in Virginia, Mr. McLeod was graduated from the Grosse Pointe County Day school.
