Work of Quarton PTA Presented in Review by Past President

Retiring president, Mrs. Mark Frank, of the Quarton PTA, has made a summary of PTA accomplishments for 1948-49. She reported that mothers of students assisted in giving eye and ear tests to all pupils last fall; a satisfactory and workable plan was devised to solve the traffic problem at the school, with Mrs. LeRoy Keifer as chairman of the project. Under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Fletcher and Mrs. Richard Mavin, the library is being reorganized and funds have been used, aside for the purchase of new library books.

Other articles purchased during the year, Mrs. Frank stated, were a magnifying sight saver typewriter, several strip films for use in classrooms, a combination radio-phonograph and recording machine for use in speech classes. The PTA furnished funds for three assembly programs during the year which included the Pied Piper Puppets, a movie, "The Friend Flicks" and a musical program by the Cranbrook trio consisting of Robert Bates, William Casey and Axel Magnusson.

DAR Regent

Mrs. Robert Kohr

The annual meeting of the Piety Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the home of Mrs. Hugh D. McLesce, Tuesday May 10. The reports from Continental Congress held in Washington, D. C. were read by the delegates, Mrs. Thomas R. Navin and Mrs. Clarence W. Wacker.

Mrs. Robert F. Kohr was elected regent for the next year. Other officers on Mrs. Kohr's slate were: first vice regent, Mrs. Walter K. Kleinert; second vice regent, Mrs. Dale M. Miller; chaplain, Mrs. Everett W. Allen; recording secretary, Mrs. Newell Allen; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Russell Ackerman; treasurer, Mrs. Hollis P. Halladay; registrar, Mrs. Harold S. White; historian, Mrs. Don E. Dasher; and director, Mrs. Thomas E. McDonnell.

Are Wed Saturday in Christ Church Cranbrook Ceremony

With the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiating, Miss Margaret Newell was united in marriage to Frederick H. Henkel at Christ Church Cranbrook on Saturday. The couple, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Newell of West Maple avenue and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henkel of West Maple avenue repeated their vows before an altar of white flowers and candelabra at a four o'clock ceremony.

In a gown of camellia white satin and chantilly lace, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. A crown of lace held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and eucharis lilies. The full train of the dress was edged with lace and the bouffant skirt was formed of alternating panels of satin and lace and extended upward to form a fitted bodice. Scauples of lace fell over the shoulder to form epaulettes and the V-neckline was widened with appliqued lace scallops.

Mrs. John E. VanderRoost of Birmingham completed the wedding party. For the ceremony and the reception which followed at the Orchard Lake Country Club, Mrs. Newell was in soft rose crepe and lace with matching accessories. A corsage of orchids was pinned to her shoulder. Mrs. Henkel wore white marquisette. The fitted bodice had a square neckline with a row of fitted bodice and was joined with insets of lace at the hip to a three-skirted fullness of marquisette and in her hair she wore valley lilies. She carried a white prayer book with purple violets and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Frederick Henkel

Upon their return, they will make their home at 302 Main street in Hamilton, Ohio.

Nuptials Read in Hamilton, Ohio

Miss Goldie Plesa Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton L. Dunlap of Hamilton, Ohio, became the bride of John Daniel Shely, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle D. Shely of Riverside drive, Birmingham, last week in a morning ceremony at the Presbyterian Church, Hamilton.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Dunlap was gowned in a ballet length dress of sheet white marquisette. The fitted bodice had a square neckline with a row of fitted bodice and was joined with insets of lace at the hip to a three-skirted fullness of marquisette and in her hair she wore valley lilies. She carried a white prayer book with purple violets and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Wherry Martin Will Be Presented in Recital May 20
Mrs. Wherry Martin of North Woodward avenue, a local piano teacher, will be presented in a recital sponsored by the Flint Institute of Arts at the Institute tomorrow evening, May 20, at 8:15 p.m. in the closing program of the winter lecture and recital series. Mrs. Martin, a native of Wyoming, studied with Edward Brendshill of Detroit and with her mother, a concert artist who was a pupil of Rudolph Ganz. Educational director of the Flint Museum is Francis Merritt, who was affiliated with Kingswood for a year. Works of Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy, Prokofiev and Liszt will be included in Mrs. Martin's program.

Your presence is requested . . .
WHEN the invitation arrives to attend their wedding, plan carefully to commemorate the event for them with an ideal Gift—remembering always it is the Gifts that last, and not those of the mere fleeting moment that are most deeply appreciated.
Wedding Gifts from LaBelles are certain to bring you a markedly sincere expression of gratefulness in her "Thank You" note.
