

Cranbrook Choir to Celebrate Ascension Day Sunday, May 29

On Sunday, May 29, at 4:30 p.m., in celebration of the Ascension Day, Christ Church Cranbrook Choir will sing the services of Choral Evensong, Procession and Te Deum.

First Methodist Church Notices

The Rev. Arnold F. Rankel will preach on the Ascension, "As He Lives to Make Men Free," in the 11:30 a.m. worship service on Sunday, May 29. The choir will sing. A nursery for small children is provided by the Wesleyan Group during this hour.

... Why I'm Buying an Electric Water Heater

Grandma goes for the dependability of electric water heating. Her automatic features mean "hot water" means "hot water" in the house!

That's only one reason, Granny, why over a thousand of your neighbors switched last month to electric water heaters...

60 Gal. - While They Last $135.00 Installed

SUGDEN & BIRD PLUMBING & HEATING 289 E. Maple Ph. 90

Guest Speaker Ladies' Night at the Men's Club will occur on Tuesday, May 31.

The Youth and Senior choirs rehearse on Wednesday evening at 7:00 and 8:15 respectively in the church under the direction of Victor Ulrich.

The three principal hazards of the forest are fire, insects and fungus diseases. On farm woodlands, heavy pasturing has proven even more destructive than fire.

Anniversary Tea And Book Review by Redeemer Lutheran Missionary Society

Thursday, June 2nd, 1 P.M. Church Lounge Book Review by Mrs. W. A. Sears "Remember Rock" by Carl Sanberg

Public Invited Tickets may be obtained from members or at the door.

Birmingham Community Market advertisement listing fresh produce and contact information.

Premier Fruit Cocktail advertisement with prices for various sizes.

For Your Holiday Picnic Needs advertisement listing paper plates, napkins, and cups.

Vegetarian food advertisement listing Peanut Butter, Sweet Pickles, Mustard, Whipped Cream, etc.

Holiday Picnic Assortment advertisement listing Cold Cuts, Skinkless Viennas, and other items.

Worship Services

First Methodist Church, 113 1/2 West Maple Avenue, Rev. Arnold F. Rankel, 9:45 a.m.—Church School.

St. James Episcopal Church, 325 1/2 West Maple Avenue, Rev. Harold E. Towse, 8:30 a.m.—Holy Communion.

Birmingham Gospel Center, Sunday, 10 a.m.—Morning worship. Sunday, 11:30 a.m.—Sunday School.

Holy Name Catholic Church, Rev. Fr. David J. Duncan, 1:30 p.m.—Divine Service.

English Lutheran Church of the Holy Spirit, 1889 West Maple Road, Rev. William C. Lovvorn.

Troy Methodist Church, Square Lake Rd., 8647 Liverpool, Rev. Howard F. Reed, 10:15 a.m.

Franklin Community Church, 945-1/2 Woodland, Rev. Wm. C. Lovvorn, 9:45 a.m.—Morning Worship.

Embury Methodist Church, Woodland at Hennaville, Rev. Oswald Becker, 10:15 a.m.

St. Hugo of the Hills, 6912 1/2 Woodland, Rev. Fr. Hugo T. Black, 7:30 a.m.—Morning Mass.

Korean Farmers Prosper

This Korean farmer tills the soil as his father did, with ox and wooden plow, but he is more prosperous. His father worked as a tenant, but under Korea's new land reforms the son will soon own his own land.

BEVERLY HILLS NEWS

Association Eleets Beverly Manor is in the line of things this week: Its improvement association held its first annual meeting and dinner last week at the Community House.

Church Women Meet The First Methodist Church Women's Society held its annual spring tea in the home of Mrs. Hugh Hemphill, 28400 Mayfair Lane.

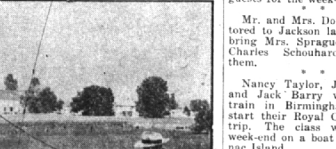

Church Club Notes

Woman's Society The Woman's Society of the First Methodist Church will have the annual spring picnic at the home of Miss Mary Sly, West Maple Ave., June 1, at 1:00 o'clock.

Happy Birthday to You! Joanne Pickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pickens, 4221 Arlington, was hostess at a surprise birthday party last Saturday evening in honor of Carolyn Caswell. There were 30 guests.

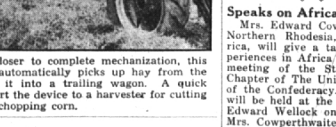

Chuck Westrine is now 10 years old. Terry O'Connor, Michael Springer, Michael Crow, John Springer, Bob Perkins, Jimmy Birney, David and Ritchie Ladd were Chuck's guests Saturday morning on a trip to the zoo, then

Aid to Farm Mechanization

Bringing the farm a step closer to complete mechanization, this new field force harvester automatically picks up hay from the windrow, chops and blows it into a trailing wagon. A quick change can be made to convert the device to a harvester for cutting and chopping corn.

Now They're Skiing on Air

Against a backdrop of clouds and cypress trees, Kip Turner, former national jumping champion, adds the Dixie Jumping title to her laurels with this graceful flight through the air at Cypress Gardens, Fla., in a tournament held under the auspices of the American Water Ski Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Backa, Thayer Erikson and Mrs. J. T. Tolley who just arrived from Denmark.

Mrs. Janet Kell of Auburn drive entertained her sewing circle last week. She gave a dessert buffet Thursday evening. Her guests were Mrs. Jake Pearl, Mrs. Eddie Dusbauer and Mrs. A. J. Holm.

Luncheon

Mrs. Herbert F. Green of Devonshire road will entertain her daughters of the First Methodist Church at luncheon next Tuesday. Her guests will include Mrs. Roland D. Pearson, Mrs. Harold Tower, Mrs. Lawson Tabor, Mrs. Bлек, Mrs. Calington, Mrs. J. Thomas Walton, Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mrs. Ralph Schwartz and Mrs. Carl Suther.

Comings and Goings

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson attended an outdoor steak roast Saturday on the lawn of the August Larson's. Nelson will attend the Indianapolis races this week-end.

The Girl Scouts gave a dinner for their fathers at the Community House. The daughters of the following girls proudly escorted their fathers: Mary Nelson, Joan and Constance Starnes, Allison Woodhouse, Betty Baker, Susan McDonald and Sandy Keane.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Cuchi of Devonshire road will attend the cup and gown ceremony June 2 in which their daughter, Mary, will be a participant. Mary was elected the lifetime secretary for the class of 1960 of St. Mary's College.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Hadley of Warwick Drive had a dinner party Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson among the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Hadley plan to attend the Indianapolis races over the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Otto, 32450 Sheridan drive, had a week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Firchman and baby Joan Mary. Mrs. Loesch and Mrs. Nusschlein of St. Joseph, their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Otto, visited with their guests on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson of Auburn Drive gave an Oklahoma party Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Don Sprague and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Eke were guests.

Word was received this week from the Mrs. H. D. Murphy, Verona Circle saying they expect to return home around July 1. Mrs. Murphy is very happy and even little two-year-old Mary Ann

Mr. and Mrs. William Faulds, 31222 Fernway, gave as their house guest Bill's sister, Dorothy Faulds from Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Elledge H. Carter had as week-end guests Dr. and Mrs. Robert McCornick, the son Steven of Rochester, N. Y. The Carter's daughter, Nancy, was invited to Pi Beta Phi meeting at Ann Arbor last week. She had three of her classmates as house-guests for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Sprague motored to Jackson last week-end to bring Mrs. Sprague's sister Mrs. Charles Schouhard, back with them.

Nancy Taylor, Joanne Pickens and Betty will board the train in Birmingham Friday to start their Royal Oak graduation trip. The class will spend the week-end on a boat trip to Mackinac Island.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greenlee of Auburn drive entertained with a steak roast on their lawn Saturday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gotschman, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Baker, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stovall and Mr. and Mrs. Al Seng, Miss Gretchen Pennington and George Ewald. After dinner they played bridge.

Speaks on Africa Mrs. Edward Cowperthwaite of Northern Rhodesia, Central Africa, gave a talk on her experiences in Africa at the June 2 meeting of the Stars and Bars Club of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The talk will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward Wellock on Lahser road, at 8:30 p.m.

Brownie Ceremony Mrs. Robert Elmers, 18250 Devonshire, entertained the Brownie troop of Pierce school in her yard on Monday. Susan Tabor, Allison Woodhouse, Linda Palmer and Judy Lokes were the girls from Beverly Hills who received their girl scout wings.

Neighborhood Notes Mr. and Mrs. John M. Holden are going to visit with Mrs. Sanford Holden in Pentwater, Mich., for the week-end.

About 25 youngsters will answer "yes" to a query of "was the hay-rick fire" last Saturday, after a nice long ride, the youngsters enjoyed a supper of hotdogs at the Stanton on Seminary.

Ten-year-old Susan Tabor was in the musical drill last Saturday in the annual horse show at Outlands Riding Stable which is Susan's sixth year of riding. Susan and her brother, Tom, will accompany their parents this week-end to their cottage on Lake Michigan for the official opening of the season.

Surprise Party Mrs. Fred Ziesche gave a surprise party for her son-in-law, Fred, at her home at 31377 Greenfield. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grann.

is anxious to get back to Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Janet Kell of Auburn drive entertained her sewing circle last week. She gave a dessert buffet Thursday evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. C. Nola's daughter, Marilyn, was home from Michigan State last week-end.

Newcomers We have two newcomers this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Meraw, 4121 Arlington. The Meraw's have three children. Joe is in Highland Park Junior college as a pre-law student. Dolores, 15, goes to junior high in Royal Oak, and Kenneth, 12, attends Parker school. Mrs. Meraw is a mathematics teacher at Royal Oak high school and Meraw sells real estate for Bertrigg and Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Berry has moved to 16122 Sunset Lane in Lathrup. They have one son, George, who is a pre-law student at Kalamazoo but plans to transfer next fall to Michigan State to take up dairy farming. The Berrys have recently purchased the 280-acre Holme dairy farm on Silver Bend road.

August Maelberghe at Christ Church

On Sunday, May 29, at 4:00 p.m., August Maelberghe will play a recital in the Christ Church Cranbrook parlors. Well-known to local music lovers, Maelberghe is organist and choirmaster at St. John's Church, Detroit, conductor of the Madrigal Club, and director of the nurses' choruses of St. Joseph Mercy and Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospitals.

He received his early training in Ghent, Ostend and Veerhaven in his native Belgium, a country known the world over as the center of the art of bell playing. Maelberghe, a composer of music, is a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists.

His program will include "I dream of Jeanne," "Carry me back to Virginia," and the hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy." Carillon recitals will continue throughout the month of June on Sundays at the same time.

The number of coniferous tree seeds in a pound varies by species. Red Pine averages approximately 54,000, white pine 28,000, jack pine 150,000, black spruce 225,000, white spruce 160,000, balsam Fir 35,000, and southern white cedar 470,000.

Meet Your Michigan

Advertisement for Trout Galore with image of a fish and text about fishing opportunities in Michigan.

Advertisement for Garden Peninsula with image of a garden and text about scenic views and activities.

Advertisement for Michigan State Police with image of a police officer and text about fingerprint services.

Advertisement for Complete Printing Facilities with text about typesetting and binding services.

Advertisement for Neighboring Notes with text about a horse show and a surprise party.

Advertisement for The Birmingham Eccentric with text about printing services and contact information.