Business Women's Club Sees Fashions Of Today, Yesterday

Fashions were featured at the social meeting of the Birmingham Business Women's Club last Thursday in the Community House. The latest of summer styles were modeled by Gladys Groves, Janice Porter, Helen Stanley and Grace Brownell. Mrs. Dorothy Kyle modeled her own wedding gown and Mrs. Gertrude Kurth and Miss Gladys Heinz paraded before the gathering in dresses of long ago to provide a contrast for the modern era.

The highlight of the affair was, however, a dress belonging to Mrs. George T. Hendrie which Janice Porter modeled. It was old-fashioned, but all reports indicated, very beautiful. The skirt was of midnight blue velvet and the tunic was of jet beading with a jet bead fringe on the bottom of the sleeves and the neck. As most dresses of days gone by, it featured a bustle, too.

Mrs. Vera Olin provided the music and Mrs. Dorothy Duncan was narrator. Mrs. Rose Buck was general chairman of the affair.

Modern styles were presented through the courtesy of several local stores.

Engaged

Shirley McCracken

Mr. and Mrs. Harold John McCracken of Pleasant Ridge announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Ann to William Evan Essery, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Essery of Aspen road, at an open house last week.

The bride-elect attended Frances Shimer College in St. Carroll, Ill., and her fiancé was graduated from Cranbrook school and attended the University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Zeta Psi fraternity.

The couple is making plans for a late summer wedding.

Couple Leaves for Hawaii Following Their Marriage

In a ceremony performed by the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt Saturday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook, Miss Nancy E. Fisher, 17, Loud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy K. Loud of Lone Pine Court became the bride of Richard Kern, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kern of Squirrel road.

Carrying a bouquet of white orchids and aspidistra, the bride was escorted to the flower banked altar by her father. Her gown of white satin was fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline and yoke of marquisette featuring a wide bertha of pale yellow lace which was cut round in front and into a deep V in the back. The sleeves were long and pointed at the wrists and a full length train swept from the hooped skirt. A tulle of lace with matching wide bertha of the dress held the full length veil of illusion.

Miss Judith Loud, as her sister's maid of honor, was in orchid marquisette over taffeta styled with a round neckline, marquisette yoke and cap sleeves. She wore a wreath of white daisies centered with orchid tones. Her hair and carried a bouquet of matching flowers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Viger of Grand Pointe and Mrs. Reginald Howard of Lexington, Mich., who were in pale blue marquisette over tulle dresses; Mrs. John W. Crim of Williamsville, N.Y., and Mrs. Fred C. Bert Taylor, Emaley Hooker of Chicago, and West Hooker of New York.

For the nuptials and reception which followed in the Bloomfield Country Club, Mrs. Loud wore a blue crepe with touches of pink and a matching hat. Purple orchids were pinned to her shoulder. Mrs. Kern was in chiffon with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

As the couple left to catch a plane for San Francisco where they will sail for Hawaii, Mrs. Kern was wearing a navy blue suit under a light beige topper and with navy accessories.

Upon their return, they will make their home on Woodward avenue.

Have You Met? . . .

The new family from Highland Park? They're Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Gossett and son, Howard who are making their home at 1901 Cole. Mr. Gossett is with the Thomas Mingeograph Company.

FATHER'S DAY

Gifts

Make your gift to father this year, a memorable one for him . . . May we suggest material things such as books of fiction and travel, biographies, classics and poetry . . . and, as you know, a man's desire for leather goods never wanes. So, we suggest belts, billfolds, toilet kits, humidors, ash trays, brushes, picture frames and many other items in leather. Above all things be sure to see the picnic kits, fashioned by the American Thermos Company. They consist of two-quart containers, sandwich box, zipper case. Excellent for week-end picnics. Priced at $13.50

Special attention will be given to children desiring to make their purchases here. Everything will be wrapped as a gift.
