

PROPER CLOTHING

Makes the Hunting Trip More Enjoyable . . . Successful

We Have The Clothes You Need!

Red and Black Plaid HUNTING COATS

by Chippewa . . . $1895
by White Stag . . . $2295

Red and Black Plaid HUNTING PANTS

by Chippewa . . . $995
by White Stag . . . $1695

HUNTING CAPS

$100 to $195

HUNTING MITTS

Opening to release hand for trigger action
$125

All Wool BOOT SOX

85c. $100 and $125

All Wool HUNTING SHIRTS

Red and Black Plaid & Plain Red
$750 to $1000

PART WOOL TWO-PIECE and ONE-PIECE UNDERWEAR

$495 to $790

All Wool UNION SUITS

$895

Red Two-Piece UNDERWEAR

Each Piece $395

Rippon LOAFER SOX

FOR CAMP LOAFING
Pair $295

OTHER APPROPRIATE CLOTHING and CAMP NEEDS

Mulholland's Men's and Boys' Department

Sutton-Pitcher Rites Are Read

BEVERLY HILLS—Noma Lu Pitcher became the bride of Eugene Sutton at a candlelight ceremony in the Epiphany Lutheran Church Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. The Rev. E. T. Bernthal officiated at the rites.

Wearing a gown of ivory satin with a hoop skirt and long train with the veil tapering into the train from a tiara crown, and carrying white mums centered with an orchid, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father.

Marilyn Carlton as matron of honor was in blue satin and carried American Beauty mums. Delores Muncie, Dorothy Burns and Marie Brandis were the bridesmaids and wore American Beauty satin gowns with star-shaped bouquets of yellow mums.

Herbert Twilliger of Birmingham was best man and the witnesses were William Larson, William Felner and Edward Burns.

Holy Name PTA Will Hear Dale MacIntyre

Americanism in the schools will be the topic about which Dale MacIntyre of the "Know Your American" program, heard over WJR will discuss Monday evening.

The monthly meeting of the Holy Name School PTA will be held Monday at 7:30 in the school auditorium. The teachers will once more be present to discuss any problems the parents might wish to bring forth.

A box will be on the desk so questions wished to remain anonymous can be dropped into it.

After the business meeting Dale MacIntyre will speak at 8:30. The third grade room mothers Mrs. John Rosier and Mrs. Frederick Cady will be hostesses for the evening and they will be assisted by Mrs. John Matousek and Mrs. William Robinson.

"President's Day" to Be Meeting Theme

LATHRUP—"President's Day" was observed by the Lathrup Women's Club at its monthly meeting Monday at the "House in the Woods." Presidents of women's clubs in the surrounding area were guests.

Feature of the program was music by Vera Richardson and her Novachord. Mrs. Richardson's interest in "Singing Electrons" began when she learned that the Novachord and Solovox. She has had prominent engagements at national and international women's club conventions, and first appeared in the Detroit area over Station WWJ.

Mrs. Drew Haneline is chairman of a hostess tea which followed the program. Assisting were Mrs. Hugh Robinson, Mrs. Robert Slavsky and Mrs. Harry Hamill. Mrs. Carl Bush and Mrs. Glenn Parker poured.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Downey of Abbey road and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Anderson of Orchard Ridge road were among the localites who watched the Michigan State College-Notre Dame football game last Saturday. Yesterday evening, the Downeys were hosts at a dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Donald U. Bathrick who are leaving soon for Florida.

Mrs. H. E. Millbrandt of Adams road was hostess at a linen and bedroom shower last Monday in honor of Miss Joan Kowinska whose engagement to John Mark of Birmingham has been recently announced. The guests, numbering 24, were from Royal Oak, Troy, Big Beaver and Birmingham.

Miss Barbara Black who is attending Pennsylvania College for Women was the weekend houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bloomstrom of Pilgrim road and their son, John who attend the University of Michigan. They attended the Michigan-Purdue football game Saturday.

Mrs. Grace N. Rainey of Oakland avenue and Miss Ione Shepard of 11 Miles road left Tuesday morning on a two-week motor trip to Asheville, N. C., where they will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McLay are moving to Des Moines, Iowa, in the near future. Mrs. McLay spent last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Williams in their new farm home near Cabot, Vt., and Miss Kitty Williams who lives in Grand Rapids now, was recently there with her sister and Miss Annabelle McLay of Wilmonton avenue.

CLUB NOTES

Alpha Phi
The next meeting of members of Alpha Phi sorority alumnae will be held at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. Lawton Tabor. Mrs. Richard Patterson will be the assistant hostess.

Pierce Open House Tonight; PTA Fair Set for Nov. 18

The annual Open House meeting of the Pierce PTA takes place this evening, Nov. 10, at 8:00 p.m. Cider and donuts, traditional fare, will be served in the classrooms by the room mothers under the direction of hospitality chairman, Mrs. J. Monroe Ross.

A short business meeting will start the evening. J. R. Fortuna, Jr., program chairman has announced. Afterwards the parents will move to the classes where teachers will have the students' work books on display so that parents may see their children's schedule.

Teachers will outline the course of study and answer any questions. Any special projects being carried on by the class will be described also.

This Open House is also a chance to renew neighborhood acquaintances and talk to old friends. Mrs. A. C. Richards, chairman of the membership committee, asks that parents who have not yet joined the PTA come and talk to one of her committee who will be in every room.

Pierce PTA Fair
Mrs. E. E. Redies and Edward Coodin, a m. p. o. e. that now mothers will have another good reason for attending the Pierce Fair on Nov. 18. They can come early and stay late for there'll be no supper problem as a snack bar will be open in the cafeteria. Mrs. Redies said.

Under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Groves and Mrs. Walter Groves, a committee will serve hot dogs, soup, home made pie, ice cream cones and coffee and milk.

Will Participate in UN Panel Program

Members of the Birmingham League of Women Voters will participate in a United Nations program under the auspices of the Pontiac Council on Human Relations Monday evening at 8:15 in the auditorium of the Pontiac high school, are public invited.

Panel speakers will include Mrs. F. Chalmers Smith and Mrs. Stanley Cain of Birmingham; Mrs. Harry Markle of Rochester; and Miss Laura Belz, president of the provisional LWV of Pontiac. Mrs. F. G. Garrison of Birmingham will moderate the discussion.

This will be the fifth United Nations program that the UN committee members of the Birmingham League have presented in other organizations since Oct. 1.

Business Women to Meet Nov. 17

The next social meeting of the Birmingham Business Women's Club will be a white elephant party on Thursday, Nov. 17 at 8:30 p.m. in the Community House.

Gertrude Rogerson is chairman of the event and working on her committee are Betty Bartow, Grace Glassford and Anna Hoover.

Children's Concerts Planned by Detroit Symphony Orchestra

Mrs. Robert L. Graham, Jr., Bloomfield Hills representative and Mrs. Frank E. Kurtz, of Brown street, Birmingham representative have received the announcement that the board of directors and the advisory council of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra met last Friday at the Women's City Club and decided to sponsor a series of four children's concerts with the Detroit orchestra under the direction of Valter Poole.

Mrs. Fred T. Murphy was appointed by the Association's president, Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom, as general chairman to head all committees with reference to this project.

The Women's Association has a small fund immediately available and has projects in progress in which every music lover can participate. Any contributions will be accepted by Mrs. Murphy.

Details and dates of the performances will be announced as soon as the committees have met.

Meeting is Changed

The meeting of the Senior Activities Group previously scheduled for Monday, Nov. 14 has been changed to Tuesday, Nov. 15.

Eleventh Annual
DOLL TEA and SALE
St. Anne's Guild
ST. JAMES EPISCOPAL CHURCH in the
NEW PARISH HOUSE
Best Dressed Dolls in Town
Handmade Gifts — Homemade Goodies
FRIDAY, NOV. 18 — 2 to 5 P. M.

Orange Blossom
GENUINE
DIAMONDS
When only the finest will do give one of these from Lake's collection of perfect diamonds set in a mounting of ageless beauty.
$45 to $1000

STERLING
The gift for every occasion. It is so desired, so appreciated.
PIECES $5
PLACES $22.50

Delivered Payments Invited

Lt. Towle, Wallace Reed and Barton, International, Gorham . . . in open stock.

LLOYD LAKE
JEWELER
"THE STERLING STORE OF BIRMINGHAM"
69 W. Maple Birmingham Phone 4127

Sport Coats

Style-Right!
Price-Right!

Precisely Tailored for Unlimited Wear!

These coats trek over path or pavement with equal aplomb! They are on the preferred list of you gals aware of your budget as you are of the latest Paris report. And as the mercury nestles deeper down into the thermometer you will appreciate the toasty warm linings (some zip-out). Most of these are broadcloth and gabardine in all the colors from this side of the rainbow to that. We have the popular short coat models, too.

$3995 to $5995

Nothing Like A Suit

. . . for its wear! Its Versatility! Its Talent! For Being Right for Every Occasion!

You want your new suit to be classically cut for seasons of fashionable wear. You want your suit meticulously tailored with important pocket and lining details. You want it fashioned of fine woolsens.

Solid colors, stripes or plaids. See our distinguished collection of suits priced considerably low.

$3995 to $5995

Fly Front Classic DRESSES

Sure winners for high style and low price. Softened by a convertible neckline, ideal for the casually well-groomed lady. Green, blue, brown, red, gray and purple.

$1095

THE F. J. Mulholland COMPANY