

Police Report Shows Accident Increases During Past Month

The 29 accidents in Birmingham last month resulted in injuries to 10 persons and property damage totaling $5,722, according to Police Chief Ralph W. Mozley.

"The number of injuries and the amount of damage done in-decrease that our accidents were of a more serious nature," Mozley said. "Right-of-way violations and following too closely was the largest contributing factor."

"We do feel encouraged at the general picture, however. We plan to continue a constant drive against traffic mishaps, dealing especially with those acts which contribute to the greatest number of accidents each month."

Since a Year Ago, 17 Women Democrats Have Been Named to Top Political Jobs

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty

WASHINGTON—Watch for more appointments of Democrat women to top flight jobs.

India Edwards isn't resting on her laurels of 17 top flight appointments of women since Harry Truman's surprise election.

The director of the women's division of Democratic National Committee has broken a precedent or two in landing these posts. Many have never before been held by a woman.

Eugenie Anderson is the first U.S. woman to be an ambassador. Georgia Neese Clark is the first woman U.S. Treasurer. Frieda Henneck is the first woman member of the Federal Communications Commission. Eleanor Roosevelt is the only American woman representative on the United Nations General Assembly. (Three others were appointed as alternates. Helen Gahagan Douglas, Virginia Gildersleeve, and Ruth Bryan Rodde.)

Many Women Judges

So many judges have been appointed it's likely more women will rush into law school. There's Judge Edith Cockrill of Juvenile Court of District of Columbia. Judge Nadine Gallagher of D.C. Municipal Court of Appeals. Judge Marion Hagron, reappointed to second 12-year term in U.S. Tax Court. Judge Brunita Matthews of U.S. district court.

Three women have top level government posts. Former Labor Secretary Frances Perkins now serves on U.S. Civil Service Commission and Nellie Taylor Ross has been reappointed to fourth 5-year term as director of U.S. Mint. Former congresswoman Georgia L. Lusk is the only woman of three War Claims Commissioners.

Of international importance are the jobs of Dr. Esther Calkin Brunauer, the U.S. representative on Preparatory Commission of UNESCO with personal rank of minister and Judge Dorothy Kenyon, the U.S. representative to UN Commission on Status of Women.

Two Top Jobs

Easily the most glamorous... and difficult to get... were the two topped off by Washington's No. 1 party giver Perle Mesta, the new minister to Luxembourg and the national committeewoman of Minnesota, Eugenia Anderson, just named ambassador to Denmark.

This is a staggeringly long list. About the only place not in the august halls of the Supreme Court, but that isn't because India Edwards was cleared to try.

How does Director Edwards select women for such coveted jobs?

It didn't take part India a minute to answer that.

"They are qualified... beyond argument" said the No. 1 woman in Democrat party politics.

PTA Gains Support of Parents in Drive for Approved Movies

"National Velvet" has been secured especially for the PTA-sponsored children's matinee at the Birmingham theatre this Saturday. This story of a race horse, is said to be exciting and carrying a deep appeal for youngsters. Elizabeth Taylor and Mickey Rooney are the human stars.

There will be only this one showing of "National Velvet," according to Howard Holah, manager of the Birmingham theatre, who "pulled" its entire program for the period of the Saturday children's matinee and substituted another with more appeal and suitability for children and young people.

Appreciation of Holah's cooperation and that of the United Detroit theatres was expressed this week by Mrs. Lawton Tabor, chairman of the PTA movie committee.

Members of the committee are much encouraged by the fine cooperation of the local theater management, as evidenced this week," Mrs. Tabor said. "We are also pleased by the encouragement we have received from parents in their favorable response to a questionnaire recently sent out through the elementary schools."

More than a thousand Birmingham parents have indicated to Mrs. Tabor that they desire and appreciate the efforts of the movie committee to promote suitable film entertainment for grade school children.

"Over and over, the parents approved a program for Saturday afternoon which is not excessively long," Mrs. Tabor said.

Cranbrook Scoreless Against Comet Team

A light but scrappy Holy Name eight-grade eleven downed their much bigger Cranbrook opponents last Saturday, 12-0.

Tom Ladd, Comet ace back, raced 50 yards in the first quarter; 45 in the second and 50 in the third. He successfully crossed the goal line each time, making all the scores, along with the extra point. Tom has scored 56 points this year.

The Comet line, led by Tex Sloan and Felix Charlier, held the Cranbrook boys out of dangerous territory through the entire game. The game brought a fine season to a close for the Comets. The boys have played seven other teams, and have scored a total of 64 points. Their opponents have scored 84.

Eight graders who will leave Holy Name this year include Ladd, Charlier, Sloan, O'Conner, Bosley, Bogan and Garvey.

Headline Correction

In the October 27 issue, The Birmingham Eccentric printed a story outlining future plans for Southfield township's Dodge Bros. Park, as they are being developed by Lawrence E. Smith, landscape architect. The headline above the story might be considered misleading, in that it did not qualify Smith as a "landscape" architect, but merely architect.
