Washington Group Will Stage Show Nov. 16 to 18

By Phil McNeill

Everything from A to Z in the U.S.A. "Azzus" is a fitting and proper title for this year's variety show to be presented by the 1950 Washington group, November 16, 17, and 18 in the Baldwin Auditorium.

Nearly 400 students will pool their talents in 23 acts of delightful and hilarious entertainment.

Some of the students are directing as well as participating in the acts. Joyce Thomas is co-director, and the show will be directed by Dolores Susan in the pickaninny number.

The Mystery Orchestra, Two dance bands will take part. A newly organized dance orchestra will remain incognito until its premiere in the show. The other is a Dixieland jazz band.

Dud Boyton, Joan Schafer, Craig Ackerman, Sally Collins, Eullen Grant and Judith Henderson will present "Baby, It's Cold Outside." A popular number with the high school set, "Travelin' Man" will be done by Ed Matus, Joan Burnett and the chorus.

Presenting their dancing abilities in solo numbers are Pat Olmstead and James Miller. Carlye Scott will impersonate Beatrice Kay. The show's "crooner" will be Jack Schmeffeld.

The cheerleaders and school band have something special to offer, and the school band association is practicing an aerobic act.

The choir will sing, as will Pete Plumstead, Ward Abbott and Barry Harper. An ensemble group will present "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland!"

Other numbers in the show are "The Hop-Scotch Polka," "Mie souri Waltz," a pantomime of President Truman; "The Teddy Bear Picnic;" and "The Huckle Buck."

Double Talk Miss Ruth Hill has the double talk of faculty and director. Dean Berry will be master of ceremonies. Jim Lurkins is in charge of the stage preparations.

Baldwin students have undertaken a tremendous task and the results of their efforts should be everything from A to Z in the U.S.A. "Azzus."

Barnum's Defeat of Cranbrook Ends Gridiron Season
By Jim Milford

Barnum put the perfect touch to the last game of the season by defeating Cranbrook 24-7, at the Cranbrook home field last week. The win enabled Barnum to tie for third place in the Little Oak conference.

The first of four touchdowns came when Don Nordman recovered a Cranbrook fumble on the Cranbrook ten yard line. Four plays later Gordon smashed six yards for the score. Mutch's conversion gave Barnum an early first quarter 7-0 lead.

60-Yard Scoring Drive
Late in the second quarter Tom Jason clinched a 60-yard march which featured John Bevis' 39-yard run by circling right end to divert Mutch's attention. Conversion and the half score read Barnum 13, Cranbrook 0.

The third quarter Barnum scored the first time it had its hands on the ball as 56 yards in 10 plays ended in a 34-0 Schlaack scoring on a smash over center. Mutch made his second conversion of the day to give Barnum a 30-0 lead.

Jason swept left end in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter for the final six points. The try for extra point was good, but Mutch missed the field goal kick and the second attempt failed.

Wins Second Straight
With the Barnum reserves on the field, Cranbrook scored its lone touchdown. Dan Murrin led the final few yards to score. Newy accounted for the extra point with an end run.

Barnum drive was halted on the Cranbrook 45 as time ran out, the final score showing Barnum 34, Cranbrook 7. The drive ending in a winning second straight and last game of the season 26-7.

Head coach Fred Gibson and assistant coach Hugh Loveland declared the squad was one of the finest ever had coached, aside from the two teams which are still in the state debate contest.

BHS Debaters Win League Tourney

By winning all four of their debates, the Birmingham debaters' teams won first place in the Peradale debate tourney at Peradale last week.

Handling the affirmative case were Marilyn Hart and Margaret Peterson. The negative team in the hands of Bob Ervin and Bob Beas.

In the morning session the affirmative team swept its debates with the Hazel Park and Peradale negative teams while the Birmingham negative team defeated the Peradale and Hazel Park affirmative teams.

Ending the morning session with four victories and no defeats, Birmingham was awarded the first place certificate, thus becoming the first school to win this type of tourney.

Debated schools were Birmingham, University of Detroit, Hazel Park, and Peradale. Peradale of Detroit was entered but did not show up.

Birmingham's representative was Jim Hogan who was acclaimed for his fine judging in the debating. Charles Thumart, Birmingham debate coach, was impressed with the victory and strengthened his opinion that the two teams would go far in the state debate contest.

Bloomfield League Will Sponsor Dance

The girls' league of Bloomfield Hills school will sponsor a Topsy Turvy Match Me Dance Friday evening. Prizes will be presented to the best matching couple and to the best dancers.

Clarkston Defeats Bloomfield Eleven

The Bloomfield Hills Barons suffered their third straight defeat last Friday afternoon to Clarkston high school by a 20-0 score. The two teams had identical records going into the game, but Clarkston definitely had the Barons outclassed. The Barons line could not hold the running attack of the Clarkston backs. Nor could they penetrate the Clarkston line. Clarkston had 15 first downs at the Hills' 6.

Clarkston took the opening kick-off on their own 41, and kept the ball until they had a touch-down. The left halfback, Olsen, made the touchdown from the four yard line. Olsen also made the extra point. Early in the second period Clarkston took the ball on their own 14 yard line, and moved 86 yards down field for another touchdown. Olsen scored again this time from the 21. He also made the extra point.

The closest the Barons came to scoring was when Woods Proctor ran back a Clarkston fumble 49 yards behind brilliant interference. But the play was called back on a clipping penalty.

The last Clarkston score came in a 45 yard pass from the Barons in a 45 yard line. Olsen threw the pass to Quarterback Shell. They did not make the point.
