Garden Club Lunch

Mrs. Kenneth McQueen, Mrs. N. S. Hadley, Mrs. Claude Sharp, Mrs. Hammond Baker, Mrs. E. H. Rogers, and Mrs. Claude Whipple were a few of the ladies spotted Monday at the luncheon meeting of the Garden Club. Mrs. Hiram Dunlop spoke on flower arrangements for the Christmas holidays. The group will start planning arrangements of flowers for table centerpieces to enter in the annual race for blue ribbons which will take place at the Community House just before Christmas. Over 225 people were present.

Brownie Activities

Mrs. Jack Barry, leader of Parker Brownie troop 63, believed that her eight and nine-year-old girls should be taught to do things for others. This year they undertook the charitable project of decorating the halls of Children's Hospital for Christmas.

At their meeting this afternoon at Parker school, the 16 girls will start on the trimmings which will brighten the lives of the little and large girls who visit the Royal Oak police and fire departments, and for that is an occasion they won't forget.

The troop consists of Barbara Collins, Peggy Barry, Marilyn Douglas, Francine and Edith Johnson, Judy Rogers, Carol House, Susan Stegg, Sandra Van Sickle, Pamela Gaerne, Julia and Joan Rasmussen, Carol Conner, Patricia Stevens, Marjorie Adams, and Norma Bohman. Mrs. Jane Stang is co-leader and Mrs. Jean Kautz and Mrs. Rasmussen are assistants.

Nimrod Notes

A huntin' we will go! And so they are. Some of the hunters who have made, or will make, their way north are Carl F. Hesse of Devonshire who is up in Gray's at the guest of Dr. Shannon; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sprague who are in their new house trailer and George Nelson, who packed up with eight of his co-workers at L. A. Young and headed for Atlanta to spend the first week of the season. John Luscombe, Russell Berger and Jim Kelly are up in their camp near Rose City. John Bode will leave today for a week of the sport and Floyd Reynolds will leave tomorrow.

Bridge Parties

Mrs. E. T. Sutton of Lahser has invited Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. N. S. Hadley and Mrs. D. V. Volk of Detroit to be her luncheon guests today. The four will play bridge in the afternoon.

Miss Marian Stevens entertained the bridge class in the home of Dorothy Kelly Monday evening. Mrs. Gertrude Corson, Donna Pearl, Delores Campbell, Lois Murray, Betty Reynolds, Marie Southard and Bernie Palling were her guests. The girls are going to practice for the next contest of weeks with the assistance of their teacher, Mrs. Corson, and then meet with a barcade of questions.

Entertaining

Mrs. N. S. Hadley of Warwick entertained the alumnae of the Pi Beta Phi sorority at dinner Tuesday. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Green, a Province officer. About 30 were present.

Brownie Activities

Mrs. Lionel Wapton of Auburn drive, was hostess at a luncheon last Thursday. She invited Mrs. Claude Sharp, Miss Kreis, Mrs. Paul McDonald, Mrs. Ed Cochner, Mrs. Hammond Baker, Mrs. Grace Lundberg, Mrs. Ed Landman and her mother, Mrs. Herbert Ladd, from Detroit in to make dining mates.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burnham and Mr. and Mrs. Hayden of Detroit were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doe of Seminole last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peters of Beverly run gave a cocktail party before the association dinner last Saturday. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Bohrer, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Doucet. Following the dinner the group all returned to the Ken Hoover's for the remainder of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Art Lafoon joined them.

Bridal Tea

Mrs. A. J. Holm of Auburn drive gave a tea for 20 guests last Thursday in honor of Mrs. Donald McLeese of Berkeley. Mrs. McLeese was the former Joan Stock of Glen Ellen, Ill. Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mrs. Frederick Prothro and Mrs. Harold Sawyer poured.

Gadabouts

Mr. and Mrs. Urban Woodhouse returned Sunday to their home on Amherst after being away for almost three weeks on a vacation. They stopped in Philadelphia to visit Urban's mother, Mrs. S. Lawrence Woodhouse, and then went on to Durham, N. C., where they saw their daughter, Cecile, a freshman at Duke University. They continued on to Florida to just relax until time to return.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Holm spent the weekend with Col. and Mrs.

PORTENT OF WINTER—As she passed through the Chicago River locks into Lake Michigan recently, the U. S. Coast Guard icebreaker Mackinac brought thoughts of the chilly months ahead. The hard-working vessel, 78 feet abeam, was the closest it ever to pass through the 80-foot locks.

Herbert Layle in Lansing. The Layles gave a dinner party on Saturday evening for them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bode of Sheridan drive attended the Rotary club dance in New Baltimore last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Carolyn and Dr. and Mrs. John Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Sauer of Fairmont drive and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arden place attended the football game at Ann Arbor Saturday. They were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. William Robinson of Ann Arbor at a buffet supper following the game.
