First Baptist Church Bontz

The Rev. Emil Kontz celebrated his second anniversary at the First Baptist Church last Sunday. During this two-year period church membership has increased by over 25 per cent and attendance by over 150 per cent. Nearly the entire first floor was completely redecorated.

Now the church is in the closing stages of a campaign to retire its entire indebtedness, with completion of the drive only a few weeks away.

The Women's Mission Circles meet this week for their monthly home gatherings. On Thursday the Ruth Daniels Circle meets at the home of Mrs. O. D. Hillman, Lone Pine road; Estelle Martin Circle, at the home of Mrs. C. B. Griffin, 18210 Kinsinger; Hazel West Circle at the home of Mrs. Manso Hillman, 1212 West Lincoln. All groups meet at 11:30 a.m. for a work period and following luncheon, there is a mission study period.

A new Junior High group has been formed as a part of the Baptist Youth Fellowship meeting every Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m. for choir rehearsal under Mrs. Walter E. Turner. After a six o'clock supper, there is a program with a local or guest speaker followed by questions and discussion. Then until 9:00 p.m., the group gathers to the church gym for recreation.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

Annual Party

Do you have your tickets for the party Friday evening, Nov. 18? That's the date for the Franklin Men's Association annual games party at the Town Hall and reservations are limited to 250. Final plans were completed at the regular monthly meeting Monday.

Poor Bowser!

If you have a dog, we suggest you keep him in tow. Franklin seems to be a target for the Southfield dog warden with his daily visits to the village.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Hutchins, parents of Mrs. Paul Zieffebauer, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Tuesday, Nov. 8, with a dinner at Devon Gables. Fifty guests, relatives and old friends took part in the festivities. Hutchins has been a lifelong resident in this vicinity. His father settled in Southfield township on a land grant from the government in 1839.

Piano Recital

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William Haworth of Riverwood Drive opened their home for a recital given by Elmer Mundt, Detroit Institute of Arts instructor of piano. Several local pupils took part, including Barbara Haworth, Steven Saunders, David Pracher and Sigmond Sneider. About 60 guests attended the recital, followed by a reception and musical movies featuring Jose Hurbi, and Michigan Bell Telephone's "Rehearsal".

To Lead Session

Bill Haworth will be the principal speaker and public relations panel moderator at the opening session of the American Public Health conference at the Hotel Statler on Nov. 29. About 400 physicians, public health nurses and social workers are expected to attend.

Class Feted

Mrs. Ralph Woodburn entertained the intermediate group of the Franklin Community Church Sunday school at breakfast on Sunday morning. Each boy and girl brought gifts of canned goods which are to be presented to the Methodist Home in Farmington.

Visiting

The George Wellington Smiths of Romany Acres left on Wednesday for Hartford, Conn., where they spent the weekend visiting their son, Bruce, at Trinity College. Leaving Hartford on Monday they went to New York where they will remain this week.

Mrs. Heronine M. Schoeffel, of Wellington road is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Donald Morrison, in Oberlin, Ohio.

European Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Moeller of Detroit broke around last week for their new residence on Franklin Hills drive. While their home is under construction, the Moellers have left by Clipper for an extensive European tour and expect their home to be completed when they return.

To Meet Sunday

The Adult Discussion Group will meet at Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinley's home on Sunday evening, Nov. 20.

A Bad Day!

Saturday was a disappointing football day for the Nichols. They went to East Lansing and saw the Pi Beta Phi sorority beat the Gamma Phi Betas, which daughter Kay is a member, then had to listen to the defeat of their alma mater at the hands of Oregon State. What a day!

Photographs for publication in The Eccentric must be submitted by Friday noon of the week before publication.
