Santa's Here!

Margaret and Ann, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bob McCartney of Arlington Heights, were in the grove, the early bird catches the worm, for they made their trip to see Santa last Saturday. The lists were long and very exciting, including three-year-old Margaret's big request for "bunches of dolls."

Bride-Elect Feted

Mrs. E. C. Duhner, a newcomer on Arlington drive, was hostess last Monday afternoon to the teachers of Hardin elementary school, Detroit. She gave a tea in honor of Miss Marion Floersch, a teacher who is to be married Friday. The school principal, Miss Harriet Petry, and the librarian, Miss Abby Shetron, poured. There were 28 present.

Leader's Meeting

Mrs. Roger Lowery opened her home to the leaders, co-leaders and committee workers of the Brownie and Girl Scout groups at Parkers school Tuesday for dessert. Mrs. Neil Kelley of Huntington Woods, training chairman of Southern Oakland County Girl Scouts, spoke. Leaders and co-leaders are Mrs. Jack Barry, Mrs. Gardner Staunton, Mrs. Gerald Sharp, Mrs. Sedwick Stagg, Mrs. Bruce Mather, Mrs. Leonard Griffin and Mrs. Edward Gavin. The committee workers from Beverly Hills are Mrs. Jean Goulland and Mrs. Dave, Mrs. Robert Rouse and Mrs. Ruthusson.

Women Meet

Mrs. Edward Anderson of Auburn drive was hostess to the Sewing Circle last Wednesday. Those who were able to attend were Imogene Bancee, Peggy Brindle, Leah Miller, Isabelle Danville, Kitty Perkins, Grace Wagner, Eleanor Grisdale, and Betty Hall.

Bride Party

Mrs. Floyd Reynolds of Verona Circle gave a dessert bridge Monday. The two tables were headed by Mrs. George Murphy, Mrs. John Southard, Mrs. James Kelly, Mrs. Carl Pallas, Mrs. Al Campbell, Mrs. Colvin Pearl, Mrs. Marion Stevens and Mrs. Reynolds.

Gridiron Notes

We were well represented at Saturday's Ohio State-Michigan game. A few who belatedly were Mr. and Mrs. Al Douglas of Arlington drive, who went with Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph of Northwood; Robert Plexico, who took his son Jon and Jon's pal Jimmie Douglas; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Riley, who are still going strong in their attempt not to miss a game this year and made Ann Arbor just in time to see the kick-off; and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaler.

Tomorrow is a big day for the high school students in Birmingham and Royal Oak. The Little Brown Jug will once more be in the line light and the competition will be fought not only on the field, but in the hearts of all those watching. The Royal Oak high school will hold its annual Thanksgiving formal Thursday night. Jack and Leroy Barry, Jane Denney and Carmo Riley are planning to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Fries enjoyed the football game a little more than usual this week, because there was a little added interest in their home before the game. Arthur's brother, Gerald, arrived on Friday to visit them, and the football game for station WKBN in Youngstown, Ohio, went to the stadium and set up the necessary equipment for a direct broadcast to Youngstown. Gerald returned to Ohio following the game, but the Fries with their daughter Betty Jayne, went on to Jackson where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morgan for the remainder of the weekend.

Social Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Stephenson of Riverside drive entertained guests from Chicago last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Genson, Jr. came over for a dinner and were the guests of their host at the Ohio State-Michigan game. After the game they returned to Birmingham for cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Al.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith invited the 5 couples who attend the square dance classes at Cranbrook in for dessert and coffee last Tuesday before continuing on to the dance. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Goulland, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Steward, Mr. and Mrs. John Culvert, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Riley.

Jack and George Dear of Berkshire spent the opening week of north of Glenly waiting for that perfect shot. Haven't heard whether they had any luck yet. Earl Gregory from Berkshire street also went north with friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Steward of Arlington drive had as house guests last week Mrs. Steward's mother, Mrs. Bosough and her sister, Delores Ann. They left Saturday to return to their home in Crosswell, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy and daughter Mary Ann of Verona Circle spent last week in Kalamazoo and Peekin, Ill., where they visited their grandparents. Mrs. Robert Plexico divided her time last week between New York City and visiting her son Phil, at Princeton. Phil is a freshman this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Perkins and family are spending a week in Leasing, Ky., visiting their grandparents.

A Good Answer

Norma Dusebeier was in both the choir and in the dances of the Hop Scotch Polka, one of the plays at Baldwin high school last week. She played the part of a Scotch boy and when some one made the remark she didn't look quite like a Scotswoman in her plaid kilts, she returned that she didn't think any Irishman should look completely like a Scot. Joanne Sternal was also in the play.

Thanksgiving Guests

Mr. and Mrs. William Ward held their annual Thanksgiving dinner on Sunday. By doing this they can get all children and grandchildren together at the same time. Mr. and Mrs. Vernelle Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quail and their children, Bob, John, Linda and Sharon came from Berkley; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ward and daughter Patti, Highland Park and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kelly and children Gay, Marie, Kathleen and Michael of Auburn Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barry will spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sharp in their home on Arlington drive.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dear of Berkshire are expecting their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Dear, home for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dusebeier of Auburn drive are celebrating Thanksgiving by giving a family affair. They are expecting Mr. and Mrs. Myron Trumbull of Northwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams of Melvindale, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zatzoff of Detroit and V's mother, Mrs. Anna Laboda and her brother, Peter. Their children will be there also, and all excited about seeing the Turkey Day game.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCartney of Arlington have Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McCartney, here from Chicago to spend Thanksgiving and the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Welch and their children of Walled Lake will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fries on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller of Farmington will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Riley for the Turkey dinner of the year. Before dinner the guests and mom and dad will take in the game at Royal Oak with Carmo and Robert.

Mary Cuccchi left for Chicago Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. James M. Delaney. While there she will attend the wedding of a classmate on Thanksgiving Day. She will return to St. Marys of Notre Dame on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hoover and son Bob of Beverly road will entertain Ken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen in Birmingham on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen of Devonshire will spend Thanksgiving Day with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pallas of Auburn drive are giving their first big dinner party on Thanksgiving day. Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lachovsky; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grossbeck, Alice Grossbeck and Mrs. Clementine Grossbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Douglas will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brown of North Woods at Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow. The Douglases are taking their two sons, Jim and Al, Jr., along to enjoy the turkey.

KITCHEN SLAVERY IS OVER!

Ah, ah, ah! Don't touch that dishpan! Why should you do dishes? Let us do them for you. Yes, call BIRMINGHAM 223 at 162-166 W. MAPLE, and we'll arrange for an appointment to come to your home and do your dishes for you, with the new General Electric Portable Dishwasher. It costs only $179.95—$18 down and 104 weeks to pay. And it's completely portable. Just plug it into a convenient outlet and attach the hose to the hot-water faucet. No installation, so no installation charges. If you move, just take it with you. When you use the General Electric Portable Dishwasher, your dishes, glasses, silverware, even pots and pans come out hygienically clean, because they're washed in water hotter than your hands could stand.
