Petition for Rezoning to Be Considered at December 5 Hearing

The city commission has set Dec. 5 for the hearing on the rezoning of several lots on the west side of Woodward, just north of Willetts.

Seeds from coniferous trees look very much like a small scale model of the maple seed with its wing-like appendage.

Howard C. Holab Celebrates His 20th Anniversary As B'ham Theatre Manager

By Alice E. Morgan. The rolling stone settled in Birmingham some 20 years ago and in that time has blended himself so well into the life of the community that he is now an integral part of it.

After spending most of his life in theatrical business of one form or another, Howard C. Holab came to Birmingham on Nov. 1, 1929 as manager of the Birmingham theatre. Since that time he has

Howland's Testimony

In speaking of Holab's association with the school, Dr. Dwight E. Howland said, "Howard Holab is one of the staunchest friends of the Birmingham school system."

Some two years before accepting the management of the local theatre, Howland had been through Birmingham. Glancing about him he liked the town, and he liked the theatre building, remarked to his companion.
