

Basketball League Calls for Players

Any young man interested in playing basketball in the YMCA City League is urged to attend an organization meeting to be held Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 8 p.m. at Barnum junior high school. Plans for the 1949-50 season will be discussed. Rule changes and interpretations of case studies will form part of the program.

Managers of all teams who propose to enter the league should pick up contract forms at this time. The Birmingham YMCA has entries from W. A. Caltrider, North Chevrolet All-Stars, Craig's Sporting Goods Store, Virginia Market, Exchange Club and is seeking a sixth sponsor.

There are many openings on the various squads. Practice sessions will start at Baldwin high school Nov. 14, with league play getting under way on Dec. 5.
