School Expansion Talk

Walnut Lake PTA will hold its October meeting on the third Monday of the month rather than the usual date so that the members of the Birmingham school board may attend. Ernest W. Seaborn, board president, will conduct the meeting. Also present will be building program. Amos F. Gregory, Wylie E. Groves, Ross S. Baldwin, and James H. Williams and Reese. Oleg Sappington and Dr. Dwight Ireland will participate.

Want Black Top

Walnut Lake Men's Club held its business meeting Friday evening at the clubroom. President, Don Harrison, presided. As one of their projects the club decided to see what could be done about getting Walnut Lake and White roads black topped.

Rare Experience

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Whitmer returned to their Walnut Lake road home at 2 p.m. after a trip covering 2,800 miles. Accompanied by the Ross Whitmers, their three daughters, they returned from a trip through Connecticut, Massachusetts, Maine and Canada where they visited relatives in Montreal and Quebec. They visited relatives in Saybrook, Conn., and from there drove to the trip and were guests on a three-hour trip up the sound on an oil tanker. Their experience was made possible by the captain of the ship, a cousin of Whitmer.

Partridge Hunting

Partridge hunting featured the vacation trip of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wade who spent a week near Houghton. They came home with a fine bag and the evidence of a successful hunting trip. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Burnett accompanied the trip and went. The two women, who are sisters, boasted they kept up with the men and were long on their expedition, although they didn't hunt. On the return trip they stopped at Blaney where they were again successful in getting the birds.

A SMALL Exhibit

Saturday, Mrs. Don Harrison, Mrs. Thomas Snyder, Mrs. Robert Watson, Mrs. Frank Dowling and her daughter, Virginia, went to see the Doll Exhibit. Mrs. Walter G. Galloway of Middleboro was a participant. Her display included many types of dolls and feathery shadow box with doll heads. Dolls dressed in representative countries formed a picturesque display. The smallest items of the exhibit were flea dresses of Mexico and sent here for the show. A magnificent gown had to be used to see them. There is an outstanding collection of Parisianisque dolls and early paper mache dolls dating to 1837. An early German doll of bisque had two faces laughing and crying.

Florida Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bertram and Margaret and Kathryn will leave Oct. 18 for Sarasota, Fla. They plan a leisurely trip with side trips to places of interest. They will spend the winter in Florida.

Attend Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald and Anne attended the wedding of Jean Wilcox and Maxwell Cramer Saturday evening at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church in Rochester. The ceremony followed the ceremony. Fitzgerald and Cramer are cousins.

Men's League

Three teams in the Wednesday night men's bowling league have members from Walnut Lake. Bowlers on the team sponsored by Chuck Walters are Axel Nyberg, Kelly Summers, Wheeler Young and Ed Chalk Waters. Sammy Reeves sponsors a team with Don Harrison, Red Menech and Al Parkins as participants. Mel Joritz is the league substitute. Johnny Woodman and Martin

Patrol Leaders

Patrol leaders were elected at the Boy Scout meeting Tuesday evening. Edwin Maki will be patrol leader and David Goodwin will be the other. The older boys acted as instructors for the younger members in helping them near Bayport. Their tenderfoot test they expect to complete the tests at their next meeting.

October Swim

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall and three children of Lathrop were guests of Conrad Ginn at his home on Putnam drive Sunday. Daughter Mary Ellen was home for the weekend and the young people enjoyed riding in the motorboat. The day was so warm and sunny, they went for a swim.

Social Activities

Mr. and Mrs. John Parkins entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison of Toronto at the weekend at their Edgewood home. Parkins and Mrs. Harrison are brother and sister.

Mrs. Larry Teal spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cramer, at their Crescent Beach home near Bayport. Mrs. Teal and her father went fishing and came in with a large catch of perch.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens of Walnut Lake road attended the formal dance of the Coterie Friday evening at the Community House. On Wednesday Mrs. Stevens attended the AAUW luncheon there.

As a college representative of Sweet Briar, Mrs. Stevens will take part in the meeting of juniors and seniors of the high schools of the county to be held at Clawson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Banker of Comfort drive went to the game Saturday at Ann Arbor with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Don P. Kendall of Walnut Lake and Daniel G. Fishery of New York. They

Wade bowl on the Beldard Construction company team.

YMCA Speaker

Edwin Kibbert, executive secretary of the Birmingham YMCA, spoke at a meeting of the executive board of the PTA Tuesday evening at the Stevens home. He explained the Gray-Y program and made suggestions for the coming school election was discussed.

Junior Big Election

Junior Big will hold its first meeting Friday, Oct. 14 at the Big. Mrs. Ruslander reported the special meeting of the board of the council. Registration for the coming school election was discussed.

Register and Vote

Registration for the school election may be made before or after the PTA meeting, Oct. 17. After this date a table will be set up in the hall of the school each day for two weeks for those who wish to register. It will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Those who voted in the last school election or who have voted in any general election during the past four years need not re-register. The school election will be held Nov. 7.

Wedding Tomorrow

The Botsford Inn will be the setting tomorrow for the marriage of Miss Barbara Jean Penton, daughter of Mrs. Grace Penton of Detroit and Robert Harold Kendall of Detroit. The Rev. Ralph Claggett will officiate at the 5:00 o'clock informal rites which will be witnessed by members of the family and close friends.
