Group Changes Name

The Southfield committee for better school management voted to change its name at a recent meeting. They will incorporate under a "Southfield Community Council."

It was voted that the primary concern of the association is the function of the school board and its policies. The committee listed their objectives:

- 1) Promotion of adequate educational facilities.
 - 2) To encourage the exercise of franchise by all citizens.
 - 3) Promotion of honest and efficient political administration.
 - 4) To combat excessive taxation.
- To promote the betterment of the American way of life for citizens of Southfield Township and to uphold the constitution of the State of Michigan and the United States of America.
- It was further voted that the following officers were elected: president, William Putnam, first vice-president, Charles M. Jones, second vice-president, Ray Kolberg; recording secretary, Mrs. William Donner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Richard Slesinski; treasurer, William Donner.
- An advisory board was set up with Oliver Kirk, as chairman and Herb Lahr, vice-chairman. Charles Cornell will again be chairman of the membership drive.
- The entertainment committee is swinging into action with a masquerade dance scheduled for Oct. 21 at 8 p.m. at Colony hall, Evergreen and Midway.

Adult Education

School children in this area were given survey blanks Wednesday to take home to their parents to determine what percentage of adults would be interested in evening classes to start soon. Sponsored by the State PTA, classes will cover a wide range of adult evening classes including gardening, upholstery, silpovering, art, handicraft community chorus, public speaking, home nursing and child care, photography, square dancing, millinery, knitting, and conservation and game control.

The blanks are to be checked showing preference of studies and whether or not the prospective student can attend at any Southfield center or only in immediate vicinity. A small fee will be charged for the 12-week course, to meet one night each week.
