League Grid Title to Be Decided by Tomorrow's Game

By Bob Hardy

"Bury the Big Red" is the slogan echoing throughout Birmingham as the Maples face Port Huron at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at Pierce Field. This game involves the Eastern Michigan League championship.

The Blue Water boys will present two problems to the Maples. Their team, which has a record of four wins and two losses, has a hard-charging line and a tricky backfield led by co-captains Art Whittaker and Doug Johnson. Most important of all is that the game will decide the league championship.

Not tied with Mt. Clemens at the top in league standings, the Maples must win this game to assure them of at least a share in the title. If they fail to win, it will drop them to third place, pending the outcome of other league contests.

Placing third in 1947 and second in 1948, the Maples will make their bid for the 1949 championship Friday night.

Mexico Is Theme of Lunch and Program

Pretty señoritas and handsome señores, garbed in colorful serapes, serapes and rebosas, held sway in room 10 at Vaughan school last Wednesday. Members of the seventh grade were hosts at a Mexican luncheon, consisting of noted Mexican dishes.

During the program which followed several songs were sung in Spanish. Dan McGaffey played a violin solo.

A skit, written by Diana Daubenspeck, depicting a typical market scene in Mexico was given by the writer, Lila Lee Schuh, Deborah Walsh, Ping Wright and Paula Albertson. Virginia MacLean, Kitty Proctor, Penny Pound, Kay Reeves, Deborah Walsh and Glenn Miller presented a Mexican dance.

Programs were made by Steve Saunders and David Ward. Bright, multi-colored serapes, made by Tom Costello, Stuart Bower, El Raich and Robert Ferguson served as favors. Steve Saunders acted as master of ceremonies.

Alice Ann Davis had charge of the committee which prepared the luncheon. Miss Ariette Haydon, Spanish teacher, was the faculty sponsor.

4-H Club Plans Year's Program

By Donna Case

The last summer meeting of the Bloomfield 4-H club was held Oct. 14 at the home of George and Margaret Pickering, when officers were elected for the coming year.

Pickering was named president; Barbara Johnson, vice-president; Margaret Pickering, secretary and Elmer Rhodes, treasurer. Janice Johnson was chosen song and cheer leader. The club reporter will be Donna Case, while John Ziegelbauer is club historian. The Bloomfield group has a scrap book recording its activities for nearly 21 years of existence. The book, which has been kept by Karl Rhodes, shows that the club was first known as the Wing Lake club. As its membership and area increased it became known by its present name.

Winter Projects

Projects for the winter months include sewing, cooking, electrical training, handcraft and tractor maintenance. Mrs. Russell Pickering, Walter Fiedle and Karl Rhodes will have charge of the classes.

It was announced that the Kuhn family had moved to Hartland, where they will become associated with the 4-H work. Mrs. Kenneth Kuhn, with Barbara and Kenneth Kuhn were all members here, with Mrs. Kuhn serving as one of the club leaders.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Janice and Barbara Johnson on Nov. 11, on Pine Lake road. Anyone between the ages of 10 and 21 years is invited to meet with the group. Information about membership can be obtained from any member.

An outdoor winter roast was held after the meeting.

GAA Tumblers Plan For Part In Show

The recently formed GAA tumbling team practices strenuously every Monday night in Baldwin gym.

Under the management of Judy Henderson are tumblers Priscilla Martz, Carlye Scott, Sally Carrier, Buffy Cole, Jane McMillin, Elizabeth Bodie, Nancy McCall, Maria Rising, Joan Carey, Barbara Wilson, Susan Swartz, Mary Adams and Jan Kinney.

These girls are preparing a special act for the variety show, to be given on Friday noon of the week before GAA tumbling.

Mrs. Margaret Henderson, girl's physical education instructor, supervises GAA tumbling.

A high-pitched sound focussed to a point by a headlight reflector can perform stunts such as making cotton burn and floating bits of cork in mid-air.

Photographs for publication in The Eccentric must be submitted by Friday noon of the week before publication.

'Wizard of Oz' on PTA-Approved Bill This Saturday

"The Wizard of Oz" will feature the program of the children's magazine, which the Birmingham Parent-Teacher associations will sponsor Saturday at the Birmingham Theater. The show will start at 1:40 p.m. instead of the usual time, with the doors of the theater opening at 1:15.

This picture, in technicolor, is a re-issue of the popular musical comedy production in 1939 in which Judy Garland has the role of Dorothy, heroine of the famous Oz stories written by L. Frank Baum.

According to the unbiased opinion upon which PTA approval of movies is based, the film has lost nothing in the passage of time and is now considered a classic in film entertainment. News and captions will supplement the children's program.

PTA movie ratings of other pictures to be shown in Birmingham during the coming week are as follows:

"Trail of the Lonesome Pine" at the Birmingham, "for the family."

"Not Wanted" and "Black Magic" at the Bloomfield, "for adults and young people over 14."

Pierce Cubs Stage Halloween Party; New Den Planned

Cub Scouts of Pierce school held their Halloween party and parade at the school gym last week. The boys prepared their own masks as a part of their handcraft work.

Highlights of the entertainment were two skits by Dens 7 and 8, with Carl Anderson as reader. A new pack song, written by Mrs. Theodore Waggener and her son, Douglas, was sung for the first time.

It was announced that due to the number of new members, an additional den would be formed at Pierce school immediately.

After the festivities of the evening, the following Cub awards were presented:

Robert pins to John Antsteth, James Ayotte, Bruce Agnes, John Barclay, William Bell, Henry Bostick III, William Casbury, Buzzy Coraust, Gilbert Chase, Don Dawson, Michael Dyer, John Falberg, Donald Fisk, Colin Grant-Watters.

Bill Green, John Grigsby, Bob Grant, Bob Hall, Jim Hanz, Michael Harper, Bob Hoover, Arnold Iette, George Johnston, Philip Kiley, David Lodge, Gary Littlejohn, Kendall Madaras, John Matson, Michael Miller, Glen Orr, Bob Parker, Monte Pappall, Russel Richardson, Earl Roberts.

Souvenir Programs on Sale at Game

The Baldwin journalism class will sell 9,000 eight-page souvenir programs at a school game tomorrow. Port Huron game tomorrow to honor Dads' night and aid spectators in identifying players.

Two of the outstanding features in this program will be a story on the traditional Dads' night and a picture of the Birmingham team. With the story on the cheerleaders the school song will be published.

The program staff was headed by Sue Pomroy, editor; Phil McNellis, advertising manager; and Dick Heleson, sales manager.

In an advertisement on the back page of the program will be pictures of two of the girls who received the highest number of votes as the prettiest girls in the senior class.

Working on the staff were Sally Collins, Chuck Baker, Dean Berry, Bob Hardy, Dick Greig and Gordon Crawford.

One of the more unusual assignments for electric motorford in aviation calls for a three-horsepower motor mounted within the hub of a whirling propeller, to vary its pitch in the event of hydraulic pitch control failure.
