"Adams Antics" Annual PTA Event Combines Music, Fun and Frolic

"The Birth of the Blues" will again raise the curtain on the second annual "Adams Antics", a minstrel show sponsored by the Adams Parent Teacher Association, to be given Nov. 3 and 4, Thursday and Friday nights, at 8:00 o'clock in the Adams school gymnasium.

Bobly Reese will direct the minstrels assisted by Bob Gougeon as manager. A new wrinkle in this year's show will be a "croonin' tootin' Western interlude," complete with corral and six-shooters, directed by Irene Mortenson. Music for the minstrel portion of the show will be handled by Fred Meyer, piano, Howard Edgar, Bass viol, Bill Bogun, banjo, and Howard Johnson, guitar. Ted Fritling will act as Interlocutor. "Ding Dong Daddy Gougeon" will be back as end man along with Al Parrish, Leo Sheehan, Vez Gipson, George Morris and Tom Ward, all giving out with old time songs and specialty acts.

Swing Low, Boys
A sextet, consisting of George Morris, Al Parrish, Bill Torrence, Larry Quinn, Don Andrus and Hal Needles will sing and swing "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot". The minstrel will also include Chuck Thornton, Howard Golegoy, Bob Innes, Ted Millington, Sam Bruni, Wayne Mortimer, Al Gurey, Mae Oakley, Don Parrish, Frank Phillips and Dick Melcher.

The "Western" part of the performance will offer a solo by Marion Vase, a duet with Kim Kimberly and Carl Reynolds and more songs by the "Cowhand chorus". Miss Ethel Howe, formerly of the Zigfield Follies and manager of the International Dance Congress in New York City last summer, will be featured in a "Six Hopkins" comedy tap number. She will also call for the Square Dance. Dancing in the two squares will be Kim Kimberly, Virginia Ranger, J. H. Nimmo, Marjorie Hunt, Donna Hunter, Webb Sis, Phyllis Gardner and E. F. Horne.

Even Jitter Bugs
"The Hucklebuck", a jitterbug routine, will be danced in square formation by Larry Ball, Shirley Kostov, Webb Sis, Virginia Morosoff, Laura and Herb Chipman, Irene Mortenson and Daryl Curtis. Irene Mortenson and Daryl Curtis, who is with the Astaire Studio in Detroit, will also dance the "Swing Frog", first introduced by Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers in "The Barklets of Broadway".

Carol Ball, Elmore Torrence and Elizabeth Bruni will augment the "Cowhand Chorus". Mrs. Merrill Miner will accompany this part of the show on the piano.

Paul Carter and Virg Hartkopf are listed as stage managers. Bob Jangling will handle the lights and Marion Westworth is in charge of the scenery. Costuming is under the direction of Mrs. Mortenson.

Betty LaMeasure, business manager, announces that tickets are on sale in the office at Adams school. The show will be open to the public.

Pine Lake Officers
Pine Lake Country Club held its 48th annual meeting Thursday, Oct. 20. The newly elected board of directors are Russell Driver, Barney Habel, Blaine Eynon, Louis Cole, W. H. Munson, Robert Eldred, Howard Nelson, Norman Moysey, and O. H. Jacobs. Officers elected for the 1950 season are Russell Driver, president; Norman Moysey, vice-president; Blaine Eynon, secretary and Howard Nelson, treasurer.

Club news deadline is at noon each Monday.

Bride-Elect

Set Date for the Pierce PTA Fair

Nov. 18 has been selected as the date for the annual Pierce PTA Fair. While final plans are not yet complete, co-chairmen, Mrs. Elliott C. Redies and Edward E. Codner have announced that the program will start at 3:00 p.m. with an hour long movie for the Pierce students. Following the movie, the Fair will be open to both the students and parents.

The Fair is the only fund raising activity of the PTA and proceeds from last year's Fair exceeded $800. This money was used to carry on the various PTA activities and to buy special equipment such as phonographs, records, movie projectors, etc. for the school use.

Film to Be Shown at Poppleton PTA Meeting on Nov. 2

Poppleton school PTA will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday, Nov. 2 at 8:00 p.m. at the school on the corner of Crooks and Big Beaver roads. A film entitled "The Sixties Hair" will be shown and an open discussion by the entire group with the teachers asking questions of the parents will follow.

Dan VanEck, baritone soloist of Royal Oak will furnish the musical portion of the program. A light luncheon will be served at the end of the evening by the roomy mothers.
