Obituary Notices

Harry J. Porter, 75, formerly of 2020 Lincoln avenue, died Tuesday, August 23, in Ft. Myers, Fla., after a brief illness.

Mr. Porter was born in Batavia, N. Y., on April 25, 1874, and was a resident of Birmingham for about 20 years. He moved to Ft. Myers about two years ago. He became associated with the Tinkens Roller Bearing company on Jan. 1, 1911, and retired as vice-president in charge of sales on Jan. 31, 1938. He was a member of the Detroit Athletic club and Detroit Golf club.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. William Coslet, Royal Oak, and Mrs. Norma Kessler, Ft. Myers; also one sister, Mrs. Huldah Johnson of Lakewood, Ohio.

Services were held Saturday afternoon from the Bell funeral home with burial in Holy Sepulchur cemetery.

Mrs. Alice A. Spademan, 80, of 424 Willetts died last Thursday. She was born June 17, 1869 in Detroit.

In 1896 she was married to the late Dr. Charles F. Spademan. She was a member of the Woodward Avenue Baptist church and the Calson Club of Detroit.

Mrs. Spademan had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Owen A. Luckenbach, for the past eight years.

Besides her daughter, she is survived by a son, Dr. Loren C. Spademan of Highland Park, and five grandchildren.

Funeral service was held Saturday afternoon at the Bell funeral home with burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

Reginald D. Robinson, 62, of 2222 Lothrop, Detroit, died last Friday in Lyons. He was born August 19, 1887 in Detroit.

Mr. Robinson was a former employee of the Birmingham post office. In 1923 he married the former June Hotelling. While living in Lyons he was the Wayne County commander of the American Legion and a member of the Lutheran Church of Lyons.

Among the survivors are four sons, Clifford, Norman, Richard, and Charles and a daughter, Thelma, of Lyons, a sister, Mrs. Seth Cox, of Birmingham, three brothers and a grandson.

Funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon in Lyons.

John A. Kilgour, John A. Kilgour died in Boston, Mass., last Sunday. He was the father of Mrs. Norman A. Porter of 1055 Pierce.

Mr. Kilgour had lived in Detroit 44 years before moving to Boston. He was a retired employee of the New York Central railroad.

Survivors besides Mr. Porter include two brothers, John W. F. Chicago and Alfred E. of Boston.

Funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon in St. Thomas, Ontario.

Capt. S. O. Robinson, Capt. Salem O. Robinson, 89, of 2222 Lothrop, Detroit, died last week at the home of his wife, Hugh of 27851 Rackham, Lathrup Township.

Capt. Robinson, a master mason, spent 40 years on the Great Lakes. He last served as master of the City of Detroit III and the Western States of the D & C lines.

Besides his son, Hugh, survivors include two sons and a daughter.

Service was held last Friday from the Frazier funeral home in Detroit with burial in Oakview cemetery, Royal Oak.

Albert D. Jardine, Albert Dudley Jardine, 60, of 671 Eton road, died suddenly in the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., last Wednesday night. He was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, July 9, 1889, and received his education in the public schools of that city. He held an electrical engineering degree from the Ohio Mechanical Institute of Cincinnati.

Mr. Jardine had been active in the electrical field for the past 20 years as a designer and inventor of welding equipment, and held several patents for the same. He was president and part owner of the Welding Machine Manufacturing company of Detroit.

He married Frances Kinley in Norwood, Ohio, on Sept. 9, 1911. About 30 years ago he came to Birmingham from Windsor and Peterborough, Ont., moving to Farmington about seven years ago. He returned to reside in Birmingham last spring.

Mr. Jardine was a member of the Resistance Welder association; Corinthian Lodge, F. & A. M., Royal Arch Masons, Chapter 3, and the Knights Templar Lodge of Peterborough, also Moslem Temple in Detroit.

His widow with a daughter, Mrs. Franklin Love of Farmington, one son, Albert K. Jardine in Detroit and sister, Mrs. Charles Riley of Cincinnati, survive.

Services were held from the Manly-Bailey funeral home Saturday afternoon with burial in Accacia cemetery.

Glen Branch, Glen Branch of 31435 Bingham road died at his home Monday.

He was born in Bangor, Mich., April 4, 1887. He married the former Alice Merrill of Cassopolis, Mich., November 18, 1909.

He was a retired DSE motor-man and bus driver and member of Division No. 26 of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Railway and Motor Coach employees. At the time of his death he was caretaker at the home of Dr. F. A. Lamberson.

He is survived by his wife, Alice; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Oke of Birmingham, and Mrs. Oksy Haefer of Plymouth and 5 brothers and 4 sisters.

Funeral service is 2 p.m. today at the Bell funeral home with burial in Roseland Park cemetery.
