Schools Open Sept. 12
 Monday, Sept. 12, the Township schools will open with about 2,300 pupils in attendance. Registration for kindergarten and elementary grades will take place in all the schools Thursday preceding opening date. Bus service will run until noon.

In New Home
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neu of Meadowbrook way have moved to the Don Wendt home on Rainbow drive. The two older New boys, Bill and Don, Jr., are at home after a month's vacation at Absaroka Lodge, Wyo.

Home Again
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heberer are at home on Meadowbrook way after two weeks in the Upper Peninsula. Their daughter, Mary Jane, a sophomore at Marquette college, has been a counselor at House on the Hill camp. Pat Heberer is at Mount Carmel hospital school of nursing.

Bridal Shower
 Mrs. Robert C. Steger and Mrs. Karl Danzer were co-hostesses last week at a shower in honor of Helen Virginia Pierce, whose marriage to James Moorish of Pleasant Ridge, will take place soon.

Arrives August 18
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Steger announce the birth of a son, Mark Timothy, August 18, at Detroit Osteopathic hospital.

Camping in UP
 The Charles R. Olivers, are camping at Copper Harbor while they plan on visiting Lake Royale to round out their vacation.

Career Group Dance
 The College Career group will hold its annual semi-formal benefit dance at the Rookery Club, 4779 Sept. 10, with Jimmie Clarkson's band furnishing the music from 9 p.m. until 1 p.m. (The dance was publicized last week in this column for another evening).

Houseguest
 Mrs. Charles Lampkin of Saratoga has a houseguest of the Robert Vints of Dutch boulevard.

Hosts Co-op Luncheon
 Mrs. Glenn Levey and her hostesses last Tuesday at a cooperative luncheon given by three Flagg Chapter DAR which met to see on aprons, pot holders, doll clothes, linens, etc. preparatory for the Fall bazaar where the shop they operate in the home of Mrs. Robert Vint.

Residents Protest Again Over New Name for Streets
 Township board members had some difficulty in retaining their composure at last week's meeting as five residents brought in complaints and pointed on Supervisor Dudley P. Frame.

To Avoid Duplication
 "I have talked to road commissioners in Pontiac who stated that the signs with our money in favor of changing the street names to aid the postal delivery. I also contacted Birmingham post office officials and they claim the new street changes have only added to the confusion."

Lawns Mower Purchased
 Another point brought up was the need for a supervisor as legislative planning commission was passed for the purpose of employing geologists with the cooperation of other communities to determine where water supply is available in Southfield.

Need Worn Linen
 Neighbors club of Farmbrook has a linen closet in the home of Mrs. John E. Harlow to sew on cancer pads. Mrs. Fred Braun and Mrs. Harlow are responsible for organizing and arranging for the monthly meetings.

3-Day Canoe Trip
 Air Squadron R. O. 2 took a three-day canoe trip down the Huron River with Stewart Reis, their leader, Harold Danhauser, another squad leader, drove the boys to Grayling and from that point they paddled in two canoes. Included in the group was Charles Runtz, Jr., of Southfield Township.

 (Sense and nonsense at the bridge table. Other justices.)

"What the crinny gee whizz did you lead the thirteenth club for?"
 "I was ruffed ahead of him with the spade king instead of throwing away a diamond..."
 "Alright, alright. I thought sure he had another heart at that point. And if he didn't, I thought you might have the spade queen..."
 "Bologna! What the blank blank did you double him for, anyway? We could have made a
