Back Home Again

Casey and Dorothy Richards and son Mikey are all back at 32411 Sheridan drive after their vacation on Lake Huron. For about 20 years now, they have returned to Inverhuron Beach near Kincardin, Ont. and still think it is the ideal vacation spot. This year they took a cousin along as their guest and a pal for Mikey. He was Johnnie Brice of Detroit.

The Richards report that Jan Skinner and son, Sean, are still there and have been for six weeks. Frank goes up on weekends to enjoy the beach and see his family. The Skinners will return soon to their home on Seminole as Sean will start kindergarten this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Perkins are once more settled in their home on Auburn Circle after a visit in Lexington, Ky. The three kiddies enjoyed the trip and always love to visit their dotting grandparents, they report.

and usher last Saturday at Bernie's sister's wedding. Rosemary Greenbeck and Edward Lachovsky repeated their vows at Ascension Church and Botsford Inn was the scene of the breakfast.

Rosemary's sister, Alice, was maid of honor and Ed's brother, Bill, was best man. Rita Washburn was her other bridesmaid and Charles Groesbeck was an usher.

Eugenja Conley came all the way from Atlanta, Ga., to attend the wedding and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pallas at dinner Sunday at Devon Gables. The honeymooners will return after a trip to Maine.

Eat Roasted Steak

Mr. and Mrs. John Holden, 33486 Sheridan drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. John Hinchey, all of Birmingham, enjoyed a steak roast Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller in Grosse Pointe.

For Building Fund

A group of ingenious youngsters gave a carnival in the yard of the Hammond Bakers on Auburn Circle Monday evening and made quite an affair of it. There were outdoor movies and pony rides, a baked goods booth and a white elephant contest. Ice cream, popcorn, lemonade and hotdogs were sold and the youngsters did it all tables and the yard. The proceeds are to be given to the St. James building fund.

Newlyweds Move In

Have you met the newlyweds? Ed Doucet carried his bride Dolores over the threshold of their new home at 32101 Arlington after a honeymoon at a summer home at Broken Rocks near Port Austin. Everything is perfect, says Dolores, and she is spending all of her time trying out a new French cook book she purchased. Ed swears she prepares the best meals he has ever eaten. Ed is a sales engineer at Vickers, Inc.

Dinner and Play

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Stephenson, 18445 Riverside drive, and Mr. and Mrs. John Quirk, 19900 Chelsea Place, enjoyed dinner at the Devon Gables before attending the performance of "Room Service" at Willow Friday evening.

Visiting Here

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ramlow and youngsters, D.C. and Patsy, motored up from Newark, O., to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Racine of Warwick. Mrs. Ramlow and Mrs. Racine were classmates at Nazareth College in Kalamazoo and so Mrs. Racine invited several of the other girls over one afternoon to reminisce about the old days.

Winnie Leach was reunited Tuesday with her sister and brother-in-law after a two-year separation. Mr. and Mrs. Ian Hanna were both in Europe for the past year studying for their doctor's degrees which they will receive from Columbia. They arrived home in Goshen, Conn., and then came on to Detroit to spend some time with Mrs. Hanna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Ramsey. The Leachs entertained the couple at dinner in their home at 32435 Bath and introduced their two children to their aunt and uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell's mother, Mrs. John Griek, came up from Cleveland last week to visit. She brought with her her great-granddaughter, Marianne Fesse who is six years old and also lives in Cleveland. They spent the week visiting with the Powells who live at 32410 Sheridan drive.

Happy Birthday!

One, two, three, four candles were on Patsy Collins' birthday cake last Saturday afternoon when she and several playmates celebrated her birthday. Judy Bride, Diane Joldersma, and Danny Murphy attended the party. Patsy is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins on Arlington.

It isn't every little two-year-old boy who has three birthday parties given in his honor. Doug Pearl started celebrating his second birthday when his mother gave a dinner party Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Hamman. Doug's grandparents. It also was Mr. Hamman's birthday, so that was a double celebration.

The Saturday evening his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Pearl, invited them over to Brighton for a birthday celebration. On Monday he invited a few of his neighborhood playmates to party. His guests were Mrs. Margaret Jappell, Mrs. Betty Reynolds and Michael, Mrs. Lois Murphy and Mary Ann, Mrs. James Kelly and Kathy, Mickey and Gay Marie, and Mrs. Vivian Holm. His grandmother, Mrs. Dale, came from Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice McCreedy and Larry and Marla were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Colvin Pearl are Doug's parents and they live at 32041 Verona Circle.

Entertain Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Stephenson entertained the Stephensons of Parkville, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge of Minneapolis, at a birthday house- guests last weekend. The Stephensons with their daughter Mary Bradley reside on Riverside drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tiefert of 32151 Arlington entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Young and children, Carter and Peggy, from Coleman last Saturday on the occasion was a bowling party held in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Danville entertained at bridge on Saturday in their home on Auburn Circle. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Brindle, Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steere.

On Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Love left last weekend for a cottage at Sandy Pointe near Saginaw, Mich. for a little vacation. The three children, Nancy, Bob and Sally, all were hoping the weather would get warm so they could live in the water. They are fairly new residents of this community and are living on Sheridan in the first block west of Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Racine and son and daughter, Julianne and Joe, are up at Pilgrim Village, a resort near Cadillac, until Labor Day. They and friends from Detroit have rented two cabins right next to each other and are resting up for the fall dash. The Racines live on Sunnyslope drive.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Monteth Seath,

19945 Sunnyslope, announce the birth of their granddaughter, Barbara Lillaine. Barbara's daddy, Captain Robert Kuhlman Cunningham and her mother, the former Dorothy Powers of Lockhart, Tex. Cunningham graduated from U. of M. two weeks ago. He studied political science and will be stationed in Washington, D.C. when he will take his family Sept. 25. Mrs. Cunningham and Barbara Seath was born August 23, are still in University Hospital.
