Bride-Elect
Localite Married in Howell, Mich.
Miss Carolyn Woodhams, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Berthold Woodhams of Howell, Mich., was united in marriage to Arthur L. Jones, Jr., the son of Mrs. Ann Jones of Ann street in an eight o'clock ceremony on August 20 in the First Presbyterian Church of Howell, Mich.
Officiating at the candlelight service were the Rev. Walter Gieske and the Rev. Joseph B. Wallace, a great-uncle of the bride.
Miss Woodhams wore a candlelight satin gown highlighted with seed pearls and bugle embroidery at the neckline, the waist and the wrists. The design was repeated at the edge of her court train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a satin half-bonnet studded with seed pearls and she carried an heirloom fan adorned with an arrangement of strobilias and ivy centered with a white orchid.
Honor maid was Miss Joanne Pullon of Kalamazoo and the bridesmaids were Miss Anne Good-year of Hastings; Miss Jean Lindholm of Detroit; Mrs. Verne Henshaw of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Robert C. Howell of Howell.
William Lambert, Jr., of Birmingham served as best man and Robert Mott of Pontiac; Robert Mott of Howell; Harold Jacobson of Wyandotte; Walter Boris of Pittsfield Village, Ann Arbor and Verne Henshaw, also of Ann Arbor were the ushers.
Following a reception in the church parlors, the couple left for Washington, D. C. and Tide Inn, Irvington, Va.

Miss McCracken Becomes Bride of William Essery
Wearing a lace gown over white tulle, Miss Shirley Ann McCracken became the bride of William Evans Essery, Jr., at an evening ceremony Saturday. The couple, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Essery of Birmingham, was held by a lace cap and she carried a bouquet of white roses.
As matron of honor, Mrs. Beecher Eaves of Mt. Pleasant wore a dress of gold tulle, cut along the same lines as the bride's and carried dark gold mums and ivy. Honor maid was a sister, Miss Marian E. McCracken, who was gowned in copper glow tulle of the same style. Her flowers were copper mums and green ivy. The bridesmaids, Miss Marguerite O'Meara and Miss Marilyn Corlette of Bettie Creek and Miss Harrietta Ray Burger of Lansing were in grass green tulle ensembles with bouquets of yellow mums and green ivy.
William Thomas of Birmingham was the best man and ushering the guests to their places were Calvin Vary, Gustav W. Oegerman, Gene McCullough, Charles W. Lewis and Robert Joseph.
To see their daughter married, Mrs. McCracken chose a rose beige crepe gown trimmed with lace; a matching hat and a green orchid corsage.
Mrs. Essery wore a toast toned crepe dress with accessories and hat to match and a green orchid corsage.
As the couple left on a motor trip to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Essery was wearing a dark navy dress with blending hat and accessories and a white tupper coat.
Upon their return they will reside at 7 Mile road and Evergreen, Detroit.

Announce Marriage of Miss Hylton to William Harrington
At a double ring ceremony held in the home of the officiating pastor, the Rev. William A. Eisenberger in Cumberland, Md., Miss Christine Hylton, the only daughter of Mr. W. P. Hylton of Roanoke, Va., and the late Mrs. Hylton was united in matrimony with William Shreve Harrington. He is the son of Mrs. Andrew LaChapelle of Stafford drive, Birmingham.
For her wedding, Miss Hylton wore a white tulle-trimmed suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible with a lace handkerchief of her mother's for a marker. A corsage of deep pink rosebuds was pinned to her shoulder.
The couple are temporarily making their home in Washington, D. C. and will later reside here in Birmingham.
