The First Methodist Church was the setting for the marriage Saturday evening of Miss Vivian Hale, daughter of Mrs. Mary Hale of Henrietta street, and William Ax-ler II, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Axler of Hamilton street.

Escorted down the aisle by her brother, Richard Hale, the bride was gownned in white satin. The net yoke of the low cut neckline was outlined with seed pearls, the sleeves were long and a full skirt swayed into a long train. A seed pearl crown of the same design as the dress held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses, gladioli and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Jeannette Arch of Birmingham in orchid taffeta with a matching lace hat and yellow gladioli in an arm bouquet was maid of honor and the bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Hale, Miss Mary Ann Reynolds and Miss Virginia Duncan, all of Birmingham, wore soft green taffeta dresses with matching hats and yellow gladioli bouquets.

William Covley of Lake Orion acted as best man and the guests were taken to their places by Earl Hale, a brother of the bride; Douglas Brody of Lansing and George Renuau of Clawson.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a rose crepe dress with white accessories and pinned a corsage of white gladiolus to her shoulder. Mrs. Axler was in brown lace with matching toned accessories and a corsage of yellow gladiolus.

Following a reception held in the church parlors, the couple left on a wedding trip to Montana. For traveling, the new Mrs. Axler selected a maroon shaded suit with black accessories.

Upon their return they will make their home in Lansing. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. John Anderson and her son, John of Beavertown, Scotland; Mrs. J. J. Johnston of Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Walter Woods of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ferris and Mrs. Jeannette Vandewalker, all of Kalamazoo, Mich.

He's Driving His Letter of Introduction!

A CADILLAC doesn't tell who you are—but it speaks most eloquently of what you are!

In every country on the face of the earth, it constitutes a wonderful letter of preliminary introduction.

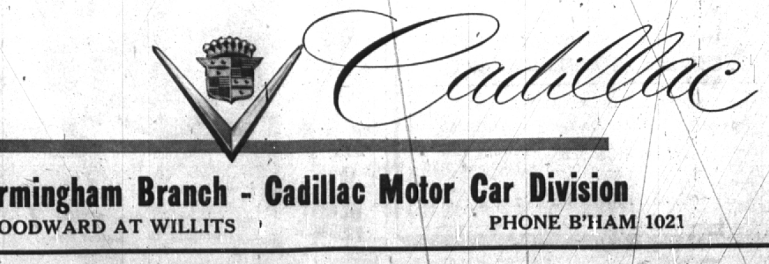

It says, as plainly as if it spoke the words, that you're a man or a woman of discriminating taste; that you're a person of achievement in your own world of affairs; and that you have the utmost consideration for the safety and comfort of those who ride with you.

In business, in finance, and in the professions—the owners of Cadillacs stand apart. The Cadillac crest has become a mark of achievement in every community and in every noteworthy walk of life.

This, of course, is an extra value that comes to the owner of a Cadillac car... a pleasing addition to the wonderful performance, the matchless comfort, and the unbelievable endurance which are inherent in every car that carries the Cadillac name.

If you would like to know what a pleasure it is to "drive your letter of introduction"—come in for a ride that's a revelation. We'd be happy to have you any time.
