

Wimbleton Parking Restricted by City

The "no parking" restriction, placed in effect 30 days ago by the police department on the south side of Wimbleton from Hunter to a point 230 feet east, was made permanent by the city commission Monday night.

on a rather bad curve and parking on the south side is considered dangerous at this particular point," the police department stated.

Ladies Are Bowling

The Women's bowling teams have started their Friday evening league. Mrs. Don Harrison is captain of the team sponsored by B-W Controller Corporation. Her teammates are Mrs. Roland Walden, Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. Kenneth Allison and Mrs. Mable Smith. Captain of the Axler Jewelry company team is Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom. Mrs. Axel Nyberg, Mrs. Otis Zahm, Mrs. E. M. Menoch and Mrs. Mary Hamilton make up the team.

Christmas? Already?

An early Christmas was celebrated Friday evening at the Thomas Snyder home on Putnam drive with a table tree, snowman, decorations and the singing of carols. The reason for the advance celebration was the arrival of a homesick family. Tom's brother Herbert and his family arrived Tuesday night from El Paso, Texas. They have lived there for a short time and were homesick. They bemoaned the fact that they would be so far away again at Christmas time. Charlotte, their hostess, took over the situation and a regular Christmas ritual was staged for them. From here, the travelers went on to Standish to visit other relatives, but will stop for another brief visit before returning to Texas.

Plan Luncheon

Plans are going forward for the bridge luncheon and fashion show to be given Oct. 5 by the women's club. Members of the committee and the local models met with Mr. Davidson Tuesday evening to select the clothes to be shown.

Raymond Granger returned to his kindergarten class on Monday having recovered from an operation. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Granger of Middlebelt road.

First Birthday

Wendy Jo Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goodwin, was one year old on Sunday. Her first birthday was celebrated at home with her family.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Goodwin of Putnam drive left Sunday on a vacation trip. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Runyon in Washington, D. C. From there they have no definite itinerary planned but will continue their trip as fancy strikes them. Mrs. Runyon is Goodwin's sister.

Cheese It!

George Osterbeck entertained 18 men at a limburger party at his home on Euclid drive Friday evening. These gourmets of the smelly stuff really must enjoy it. It is the trend time they have indulged themselves. As on previous occasions the wives gathered for bridge games at homes some distance away.

Son Is Born

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Pettit of Walnut Lake road announce the birth of a son, Saturday morning, Sept. 17 at New Grace hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds and has been named Roger Pandleton Pettit, Jr. Steve Pettit was six years old on Sept. 15. He entertained a group of his friends on Saturday. His daddy helped him with his party and showed movies for their entertainment. Ricky, his brother, joined in the celebration of Steve's birthday and the arrival of a new brother.

Paper Pick-up

Save all your old newspapers and magazines; the Cub Scouts will gather them up on Saturday, Sept. 24.

School Assembly

An assembly was held at the Walnut Lake school Friday morning when John MacDonald, the new president, presided. The new officers took their oaths of office. Patty Nyberg is vice-president of the student council, Ellen King, secretary and Peter Sintz, treasurer. Peter Wimer, the chairman of the school store, gave a report. He is assisted by Patty Nyberg and Patricia MacLennan.

Ellen King heads the savings stamp committee. Her helpers are Carolyn Killing and Billy Goddard. Ellen reported for this committee and an secretary of the student council read the new rules adopted by the council at a Sept. 15 meeting. Sheila Menoch is the chairman of the health council.

Representatives to the council from each grade are: grade 1, Karen Smith and Douglas Walton; grade 2, Corinne Scarborough and Bob Sintz; grade 3, Sandra Sweet and Peggy Boston; grade 4, Peter Sintz and Penny Nyberg; grade 5, William Goddard and John Macdonald; grade 6, Ellen King and Patty Nyberg.

A representative of the PTA presented the award for second grade for having the greatest number of parents present at the September meeting. Mrs. E. J. Brown accepted the award for her class. An enthusiastic applause followed the announcement that Sgt. Henry Timm of the Birmingham police department would attend the next assembly and show safety movies.

Men Elect Staff

Election of officers was held Friday night at the Walnut Lake Men's Club. Clifford Williams presided. Don Harrison will take up the duties of the president at their next meeting Oct. 7. Ernie Jacobson was elected vice-president, Keith Kennedy as treasurer and assisted by Wheeler Young. William Wolf is the new secretary.

Bill Unsworth will be the chairman of the entertainment committee again this year. The visiting committee will be Ted Karuso and Perry Graber. "Cappy" Sorvala, visited the club and was called upon to help out in the entertainment. "Cappy" and his accordion are very popular with the members. Ray Fremont, Donald Benway and Norman Howarth were guests.

Meet Tonight

Tonight the Women's Club will hold its first meeting of the season. Mrs. E. J. Brown, club president issues an invitation to every woman in the community to attend the meeting. The executive board has several recommendations it will present to the members for their consideration.

Activity groups for the year will be formed and it is hoped to have several new ones. Carl Ribolin will review "The Little Prince" by Antoine DeSaint Exupery. Refractions will be given by Mrs. Arne Maki, Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. Parker Rockwell and Mrs. Richard Young. Come to the school tonight at 8 o'clock!

Newcomers

Newcomers to Walnut Lake are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Benway, who lives at 220 Lakewood. They have purchased the home formerly owned by John Knoll. Valerie, their daughter, will soon be 12 years old. Howard is eight. The Benways moved here from Detroit where Don was in the planning department of the Dodge main plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Rickard and their three children recently moved to 436 Putnam from Lionville, Pa. Marjorie is eleven, eight and James seven. Rickard is employed by the Ford Motor Company in the accounting department.

Birthday Parties

Douglas Walton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Walton, celebrated his sixth birthday Friday. His mother brought ice cream and birthday cake to school for his classmates in the first grade. The last hour was spent playing games and enjoying the refreshments.

William Wolf celebrated his birthday Sept. 12. The Perry Graber family joined in the celebration going to the Wolf home for dessert and a party. Sunday the Wolfs were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Braun of Detroit. Bill and Glen formerly lived together in Canton, Ohio.

Variety Girls

The Variety Girls held their first meeting after the summer vacation Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Young on Lawndale.

Cub Scout News

Eight-year-old may now join the Cub Scouts. Don Harrison, the Cubmaster, recently announced the change in the age requirement. Any boy interested in becoming a member may do so by getting in touch with Harrison or any of the Den Mothers. Plans for the coming year were discussed at a meeting of the Cub committee last week. James Meluish is the chairman and Edward Sintz is the secretary. Sunday the Den Mothers for Den 2, Mrs. Reginald Smith and Mrs. Graham Overgard will assist her.

Den 2 will have Mrs. Don Harrison and the Den Mothers. This Den will be Donald Selner. Mrs. Ames Coldwell will serve as Den Mother for Den 3. William Goddard will assist. Meetings will be held the last Monday of each month.

Training Program

Mrs. Harry Maves, Mrs. Edson Stevens and Mrs. Lee Hanson took part in the Girl Scout training program Friday at the Community House. Mrs. John Perkins attended the Brownie classes. Mrs. Stevens, the coordinator of the Walnut Lake troops, attended a meeting of the coordinators of the Birmingham Council Thursday evening.

Family Reunion

There were 45 members of the Carey family attending the reunion at the home of Walter Carey on Middlebelt road Sunday. Ruth Browne of Detroit, a second cousin of Walter, brought the drawing of the family tree recording six generations. The family was traced back to August 1858 when Sarah and Jeremiah Browne arrived in Quebec after a two-month trip from England. Sarah kept a diary on the trip which is now owned by

Southfield Twp. Residents Cite Open Manholes, Poor Home Construction

By Lillian Diehrich

The Southfield Woods Association, headed by Burton Glutting, president and backed by four residents, brought several complaints before the township board meeting last week. They claim that 10 sewer holes in Bonnie Acres and Southfield Woods are minus sewer covers. Dudley P. France, supervisor stated that the Oakland County Drain Commissioners are responsible for the problem. Charlotte Norrid Carey, excerpts were read at the reunion.

A sonnet, written by Evelyn Carey Barr, of Mansfield, Ohio, about their ancestors was also read. Walter's father, Fred G. Carey of Lexington was one of the guests. The oldest member of the family attending was Alice Browne Kennedy, 84 years old.

The board decided on a straight 40-hour work week in accordance with other governmental offices throughout the state. The issue had been deliberated upon several times at past meetings.

Two men, E. K. Schaefer, zoning chairman, and Dudley France, were delegated to the Southern Oakland County Planning Board.

The board approved advertising for a dog warden, since Southfield will take over that aspect of protection Sept. 24. The dog pound in the rear of Berg road hall will accommodate 15 dogs. Licenses will be issued in the hall starting that date.
