Barnum PTA Sets Tonight as First Meeting of Year

If last year's first PTA meeting at Barnum Junior high is any indication of how many interested parents and teachers will be on hand tonight for the Get-Acquainted meeting, well over 600 are expected by principal Samuel R. Bennett and president Mrs. A. K. Toepfer.

Teacher vice-president, Mrs. Monzelle Clark, will explain the program of her radio workshop and present a short skit dealing with their work. Parents will have the opportunity to meet their children's home room teachers, the entire teaching staff and girls' and boys' counselors, Miss Muriel Brusie and Malcolm Tidball.

Hospitality chairman Mrs. E. S. Johnson and her committee have put in a large order for cider with a local cider mill and while refreshments are being served all different parents to the school will have an opportunity to get acquainted.

Program Accepted

At a meeting of the executive board of Barnum PTA held last Thursday, the program for the year was presented and accepted. Nine meetings are scheduled for the year, beginning with tonight, Oct. 20, Dr. Ireland, superintendent of schools, and members of the school board will appear before the membership and present plans for the new high school building and the entire school building program.

Nov. 17 will be Barnum's Open House night. Dec. 21 will feature the annual Christmas play and musical program. An innovation in the form of a members' square dance is scheduled for the January meeting, Feb. 23, Mar. 23 and April 20 will be the individual class for a large musical workshop on the junior high age child, conducted by Miss Esther Middlewood of the Michigan State Department of Education. The season's program is brought to a finish by the Spring Concert of the glee club, band and orchestra on May 11.

Plans Completed for Village Players' Tea This Sunday

Board members of the Village Players will be at the door to welcome members and prospective members of the group to the tea at the Playhouse this coming Sunday, Sept. 25. Assisting them will be Mrs. George F. Green and those on her ticket committee, Mrs. Gilbert Gove, Mrs. Raymond Giffels, Mrs. Jesse Eakins, Mrs. Howard McDonald and Mrs. Robert Garrison.

Mrs. Berrien Ketchum, chairman of the social committee, entertained her assistants at coffee Thursday morning and at this time, final plans for the tea were made.

In charge of decorating the tea table are Mrs. Robert Aldrich, Mrs. Chester Hard and Mrs. Thomas Adams. Mrs. Aldrich is also in charge of music. Those planning the decorative motif for the Playhouse are Mrs. Gordon Baker, Mrs. Frank Dalton, Mrs. Charles Burgess and Mrs. LeRoy Braisted.

Other members of the social committee busy with details are Mrs. Donald Ray, Mrs. Donald Bell, Mrs. George Broach, Mrs. E. W. Deer, Mrs. Blaine Eynon, Mrs. George Fox, Mrs. Arthur Genung, Mrs. Clifford Gould, Mrs. Norman Gustafson, Mrs. Walter Hedrich and Mrs. F. Hollister. Others are Mrs. Wallace Ivers, Mrs. C. Swain Lumley, Mrs. Alan Lutz, Mrs. Lavinia Nachus, Mrs. Maude Mack, Mrs. Vern Markley, Mrs. Sidney Oldberg, Mrs. Jasper Reid, Mrs. Russell Richardson, Mrs. Lawton Thores, Mrs. Harold Towne, Mrs. Charles Vincent and Mrs. Robert Wyatt.

MSC Alumni Plan First Fall Dance

As the opening event on its fall and winter social calendar, the Michigan State College Alumni Club of Detroit will hold an informal dance at the Book-Cadillac Hotel, September 24.

Arrangements for this traditional MSC party—which follows the annual Michigan State-Michigan football game—are being made by George Culp, assisted by Russell Holcomb, Mrs. Edward Kramer, Mrs. Lyle Robinson and Miss Hattie Crook. E. Ray Correll and his orchestra will provide the music from 9:30 to 1:30.

"Debussy—Notes and Anecdotes" will be the subject of a program presented by Mrs. Carl Binkle (right) and Mrs. John H. Abbott Monday, Sept. 26, at 1:30 p.m. in the Baldwin Public Library for the combined book groups of the Birmingham branch of the AAUW.

The program will include Clair de lune, La plus que lente, Les sons et les parfums tournent dans l'air du soir; La soiree dans grande and Minstrele. Between the musical selections played by Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Binkle will comment on the life of the composer.

This will be the fifth in a series of musical programs which the two localities have presented in a period of five years. Each year they have chosen a musician from a different country. Chosen this year are Polish; Greig a Norwegian; Liszt, Hungarian; Rachmaninoff, Russian and Debussy, French. Each year they have spent months in preparation and have been invited to give their programs to many groups in Birmingham as well as other communities.

The book group chairman in charge of the tea following the program are: Mrs. John E. Eckendrode, Mrs. Thomas B. Anderson, Mrs. Niel C. Talmage, Mrs. Owen S. Hendren and Mrs. Glenn Kyker. All members of the AAUW interested in joining a book group are invited to contact Mrs. Donald Howarth, Mrs. Jesse W. Eakins, chairman of the book sale, has asked all members and guests to bring books for the sale to the library at this time.

Mrs. Clarence W. Blennan, membership chairman, and her committee chairman, Mrs. Charles C. Adams, Mrs. R. T. Hatch, Mrs. Richard Stites and Mrs. A. S. Thornbury are busy welcoming new members. Those who are eligible to join may contact Mrs. Blennan or any of the committee members. The first general meeting of the AAUW will be a luncheon on Oct. 12 at the Community House.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

Local Members of Soroptimist Club To Attend Granting

Members of the Birmingham Soroptimist Club will attend the formal granting, induction of charter members and installation of officers of the Soroptimist Club of Berkeley to be held at Northwood Inn, Woodward avenue, starting with dinner at 6:30 o'clock Sept. 29.

The Soroptimist Club of Royal Oak, as sponsors of the newly formed organization, will be hostesses and among the out-of-town guests expected to be present are the national president of the American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs, Gertrude G. Hult; Miss Luella Zehner, midwestern region director and Mrs. Marie Wolverson of Detroit who will be the organizer of most of the Michigan Soroptimist Clubs.

The Berkeley group will be the 28th Soroptimist club in the American Federation. The aims of these clubs are to promote the spirit of service and true friendship among members, back up meritorious civic movements, work for the advancement of women by dignifying their occupations and render aid to youth through education, some financial aid and personal contacts.

Each Tuesday at 5 p.m. is the deadline for news, society, classified and display ads.
