Acorns Top Maples' Cross Country Score

Taking nine of the first ten places, Royal Oak's cross country team downed the Maples 19-52 in the season opener last Friday at Royal Oak.

The winner was Acorn runner John Colenso in the fast time of 10:42. Dick Shalberg, Birmingham, was second in 10:46.

Birmingham ran without the services of feet-footed Eric Heizer, out of school with a cold last week.

Other Maple runners in Phillips were Bob Pope, Don Westerbey, Frank Weaver, Ronnie Phillip and Roy Horne.

News Notes from Vaughan School

The senior class at Bloomfield Hills High held its first meeting last week, under the direction of Edward Dykstra, the 11th grade sponsor.

The following officers were elected for the year: president, Jerry Levin; vice-president, Roy Hawkins; treasurer, Bruce Wilson; secretary, Sue Wendell.

Plans for a busy year for the ninth and tenth grade group of the Spanish Club, Los Amigos, got under way at a noon meeting, Tuesday, Sept. 26. New officers elected at the meeting were: president, Marcia Wells; vice-president, Nedra Schuckbers; secretary, Mary Andrews; treasurer, Carolyn Luttrell.

The club is planning to start out the year by putting on a play. Tentative plans also were made to attend a Spanish movie at the Asteca Theater in Detroit and to have some parties featuring winter sports.

Baldwin Girls Plan Big Sister Picnic

The Big Sister picnic, sponsored annually by GAA, will be given next Wednesday from five to eight o'clock at Baldwin.

Georgia Roehm, general chairman, and her committee members, Nancy Squires, Mary Lou Gregory, and Marion Hess are planning an evening of fun and entertainment.

Mrs. Margaret Henderson, girls' physical education instructor, is advisor of GAA.

American research ingeniously has improved the wartime synthetic rubber to the point where it is now 30% more durable than natural rubber for passenger car tires, rubber experts believe.

Mrs. Wonnberger to Teach Drama Groups

For the second season Mrs. Annetta Wonnberger, co-director of the Cranbrook Summer Theatre will offer a series of late afternoon classes in dramatics for elementary and high school students. These will be offered in two series, the first to extend from Jan. 10 through Dec. 4, the second from Jan. 10 through March 15. Time for the classes will be set according to the needs of the students involved.

Mrs. Wonnberger has been associated with the Cranbrook Summer Theatre since its start as director of the Junior and intermediate divisions. She was formerly on the staff of the Rice School of the Theatre, Martha's Vineyard, Mass., and is an alumna of Smith college. In recent years she has done speech correction work privately and at Wayne university.

The program will include instruction in various areas of dramatic arts, with some opportunity for performance. Classes will be kept small and emphasis laid on individual instruction and improvement.
