Announcements From St. James Church

Sept. 11 is the date for the opening of St. James Episcopal Church schools. Classes for children ages nine and up and classes for adults will be held at 9:30 a.m. For children ages three through eight, school will meet at 11:00 a.m.

An announcement from the churchly stated that the new addition is expected to be completed within a few weeks. Included in the expansion are ten new classrooms.

On Sept. 12 at 4:00 p.m., the Girls' Friendly Society will convene again. Girls between the ages of nine through 15 are welcome. The group's program consists of workshop, recreation, devotionals and business.

Church Members to Be Hosts at Meeting

Today, Thursday, September 8, the Women's Mission Union of the church will hold its first fall meeting. It will be an outdoor occasion held at the home of Mrs. Robert G. Favery on Lahser Road. The new officers of the Union will be formally installed at their respective responsibilities by Mrs. Emil Kontz. Speakers at the meeting will be Mrs. Ruth Davidson, Mrs. Percy Burnett, Mrs. Earle Cunningham and Mrs. Howard Field. The meeting opens at 10:30 a.m. and continues into the early afternoon. A dessert luncheon will be served at the noon hour.

On Saturday, the First Baptist Church will be host to the officers and leaders of the Northwestern Baptist Church of Detroit. This group, under the leadership of the pastor, the Rev. Hale Thornberry, will hold its annual planning conference here during the afternoon and evening. Ladies of the local church will serve as hostesses for the visiting group.
