Obituary Notices

MRS. ALICE C. PORTER, 83, was buried Friday afternoon in White Chapel cemetery. Services were held at the Bailey funeral home.

Mrs. Porter died in a Pontiac convalescent home, last week Wednesday. She was born on July 4, 1866 in Westfield, N. Y., and in 1893 was married to Alfred Porter in Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Porter died some time ago.

She came to Birmingham from Royal Oak in 1943 and was a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Mrs. Porter is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Webster Scheifele and Miss Faith Porter, both of Birmingham.

MRS. SARAH LAMB, 76, of 2150 Rochester road, Big Beaver, died at her residence Monday after a long illness.

She was born Sept. 7, 1878 in Ontario, and came to this country as a young girl. A resident of this area for many years, she was a member of the Big Beaver Methodist church.

The survivors include three step-children and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Bell funeral home with burial in Crooks cemetery.

MISS EDITH M. PRAVEL, 25, died suddenly Tuesday morning at her home in Ferndale road.

She was born in Ferndale on Dec. 12, 1924, and came with her parents to make her home at Walnut Lake about 10 years ago.

Miss Pravel was graduated from Baldwin high school in 1943 and had been in the employ of the Bingham and Bingham Insurance company.

She was a member of the Redeemer Lutheran church.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harman Pravel, Walnut Lake; a sister, Mrs. Roy T. Lewis, Birmingham; two brothers, Herman C. of Beverly Hills and Raymond G. of Walnut Lake.

The body will be at the Manley Bailey funeral home until 2 o'clock this afternoon when services will be held from the Redeemer Lutheran church. Burial will be in Glen Eden cemetery.
