CAROLYN HARDIG

From Hamilton, Ohio, comes the news of the engagement of a former Birmingham resident, Miss Carolyn Hardig, daughter of Mr. Herbert S. Suter and the late Joseph L. Hardig, to Houston Harte, Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Harte of San Antonio, Texas.

Miss Hardig was graduated from Southern Seminary in Virginia and attended the Lynchburg Women's College in Lynchburg, Va. Her fiancé will receive his degree from Washington and Lee University where he is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

The couple is planning a June wedding.

Theisen-Quinn Rites are Read

Miss Patricia Jeanne Quinn, daughter of Mrs. Gladys E. Quinn of Henrietta street and Mr. Joseph A. Quinn of Royal Oak was married Saturday morning to James Theisen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Theisen of Dearborn in the Shrine of the Little Flower.

Exalted to the altar by her father, the bride was wearing white chantilly lace which was styled with a Peter-Pan collar, long fitted sleeves and a bouffant skirt which swept into a full length train. A matching chantilly sash held her fingertip veil and she carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Miss Grace Gardner of Detroit, as maid of honor, wore frosted pale green organza with a matching white bonnet trimmed with velvet ribbon and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and ivy.

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Miss Shirley Quinn, a sister of the bride, and Miss Cynthia Theisen of Dearborn were in pale yellow and orchid organza respectively with exchanged colors in their carnation bouquets. Young Laurie Quinn of Royal Oak, a niece of the bride, wore pink organza and carried rose petals in a basket.

Serving as best man was Henry Theisen of Dearborn, a brother, and ushering the guests were Edward Quinn of Royal Oak and John Kerner of Detroit.

For the ceremony and reception which followed in the Pleasant Ridge Community House, Mrs. Quinn wore iridescent grey with a matching hat which was highlighted by pink veiling and flowers and Mrs. Theisen was in dusty rose with white accessories.

For traveling to the Smokey Mountains in Tennessee, the new Mrs. Theisen wore a navy blue suit and hat.

Upon their return they will make their home in Birmingham on Townsend street.

Nancy Gail Sanders Is Wed to Robert Frick

Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting Saturday evening for the marriage of Miss Nancy Gail Sanders and Robert Carl Frick. The couple, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Sanders of Epping lane, Bloomfield Hills, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Harmon Frick of Detroit repeated their vows before the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt.

MRS. ROBERT FRICK

A reception followed at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club

Upon their return on May 1, they will reside at 1692 Washington boulevard.

For her marriage Miss Sanders wore chantilly lace cut with an illusion neckline, long traditional sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a rose point cap and she carried a small bouquet of stephanotis. She also had a rose point handkerchief which her grandmother, mother and cousin had carried at their weddings.

MISS MARY ELLIOTT WELCH of Bloomfield Hills as maid of honor was in shell pink taffeta with a matching straw cap and pink veiling ties. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Frederick Sanders of Maribeehead, Miss Peggy Ratke of Rockford, Ill.; Miss Shirley Sylvester of Birmingham and Miss Mary Frances Tobias of Berkeley wore similar gowns in American Beauty red with small rose bouquets.

Best man was Charles MacGregor of Detroit and ushering were Frederick Sanders of Maribeehead, Miss Jack Sanders of Bloomfield Hills; Cranston Jones of Detroit; Jack Pflug of Walled Lake; Robert Parks of Detroit; Robert Bryant of Flint; Dolph Neumeier of Grosse Pointe and Dick Lesita, Detroit.

Mrs. Sanders chose a beige crepe for the reception and Mr. Frick was in coral chantilly lace.

To travel, the new Mrs. Frick selected a tailored grey and white skirt suit with a white hat which featured green trim and black accessories.

of "Broadway" were Mr. and Mrs. W. Thacher Longstrech of Oakland avenue. They are planning to be hosts at a similar affair tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard K'burg of Lahser road returned last week from a West Indies vacation. By plane, they visited Jamaica, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Curacao, Venezuela, Trinidad, Puerto Rico and spent a week at Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands where they witnessed the inauguration of Governor de Castro.

Miss Phyllis Keenan of Pilgrim road spent this weekend in Winnetka, Ill., where she visited with her father's family. Mr. and Mrs. David James Kadyk, in the couple's honor, Mrs. George Schumacher and Mrs. Bruce Wells were co-hostesses at a tea Friday and Mr. and Mrs. Curt Heinfeld entertained at a dinner on Saturday.

Planning a cocktail party on April 30 are Mr. and Mrs. Thacher Longstrech of Oakland avenue. The Longstrechs will be moving shortly to Philadelphia.

Entertaining last Saturday before the St. Dunstan's production
