AUSTIN'S WANT TO GIVE AWAY

AUSTIN'S of Berkley is featuring in its windows the 1950 model of the famous Berry Brothers Wagon and a display of fine paints and finishes. Dads and granddads will undoubtedly have plenty of happy memories about their own Berry Brothers Wagon when they see this new model on display.

They'll remember that Berry Brothers used the wooden paint cans for wagon bodies in their day!

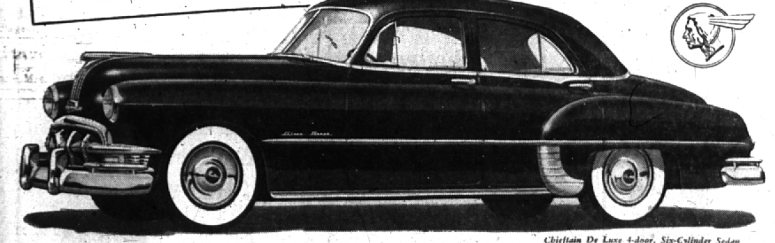

Today's version of this well-known wagon is a streamlined beauty with low sides, roller bearing wheels and over-sized rubber tires.

IT'S FREE TO ANY BOY OR GIRL who collects a specified number of sales receipts from the retail paint department of Austin's of Berkley. Simple details will be gladly provided at the store, on West 12 Mile Road—just East of the Berkley Post Office. Energetic boys and girls may get Aunts and Uncles and other relatives and friends to save receipts for them so they can get their Berry Brothers Wagon sooner.

You can pay more for a car than the price of a new Pontiac—but you can't buy more all-around automotive goodness! Pontiac's new prices are doubly remarkable. First, they are remarkably low—in fact, they are just above the very lowest. Second—and far more important—are the wonderful things your new car dollars buy when you choose the Pontiac nameplate. You get a big, wonderfully beautiful car—you get the enduring thrill of Pontiac's sparkling Silver Streak performance—you get the smoothest, most comfortable ride you've ever had. And you get more—a wonderful sense of deep-down pride and satisfaction every time you're behind the wheel! Dollar for dollar, you can't beat a Pontiac!
