College and School Conference Saturday at Cranbrook School

Professors Albert H. Markwardt and Charles C. Fries of the University of Michigan will speak at a college and school conference at Cranbrook school this Saturday.

Carl G. Wonnberger, head of the English department at Cranbrook is the director of this meeting which will have as its theme, "The Articulation of School and College English."

The Markwardt speech, "Planning a College Freshman Course" will be given at the morning session which will be greeted by Headmaster W. Brooke Stabler. Prof. Fries will speak on "Linguistic Science and the Learning Process," at the luncheon meeting.

DURING THE afternoon, Professors Theodore Morrison of Harvard, Albert Elmsner, Princeton; Ellenor Shannon, Denison; Stewart Gordon, Chicago; Stearns Morse, Dartmouth and Denham Sutcliffe, Kenyon, will conduct discussion groups on such matters as "The Teaching of Literature in High Schools," "English Grammar," "Composition Skills at Secondary School and College Freshman Levels," "Motivating Study in English," and "English Vocabulary."

A session for resume and tea at the residence of Headmaster and Mrs. W. Brooke Stabler will complete the program.

BHS Students Fete Parents at Annual Achievement Night

By Peg Perkins

Achievement night will be held at Baldwin gym, May 2 at 7:30. From the opening hour until 8:15, parents will look at exhibits of work of the students.

There will be an assembly from 8:15 to 8:45, with the program including a song by Ted Werner and a concert duet by Ronnie Phillips and Bill Bernick.

A play, "Blanca Nieve", presented by Los Peregrinos, Baldwin Spanish club, directed by Mrs. Lydia Huest at George Washington's tomb, will be repeated under the direction of E. A. Hubbard, director and Ed Matus, president of the group.

The sunrise service choir from the Washington group, directed by Ward Abbott, will sing and a brass sextet consisting of Bill Bernick, Sue Fricker, Betty Oiler, Ronnie Phillips, Jack Rue and Herb Strasser will play.

THE ASSEMBLY will be followed by tours of Baldwin and Hill schools. Leading the tours will be Howard Liverance, Martha Kraft, Charles Davies, Mary Halliday, Judy Henderson, Bill Wilkins, Jim Lukins.

A Cranbrook committee on preparation includes: Temple Licklider, Bruce Coulter, Robert Kennedy, Arthur Palmer and Edmund Snyder.

Prof. A. J. Clark, chairman of the Michigan State college scholarship board has announced the awarding of 375 scholarships to high school seniors for the coming school year.

Among students to receive these grants are James L. Buchanan and Roberta J. Conner of Baldwin high school and Robert C. Ward of Cranbrook school.

Clark said these are the second annual awards made available to Michigan high school students under a plan inaugurated by MSC in 1948.

The grants, awarded on the basis of honor scholastic average, financial need and good citizenship, cover all tuition and course fees at the college for one year. By maintaining a high scholastic average a student may have the full sum renewed for four years.
