Three Localities Win Certificates
 Among the more than 1400 Duke University students who have been awarded Red Cross swimming certificates, were three localities, Richard C. Reilly, Patterson Wall and John E. Currier. The work done at Duke has played a part in enabling North Carolina to lead in swimming and other states in the southeastern area in the number of swimming and life saving certificates issued by the Red Cross headquarters in Atlanta, according to W. S. Persons, swimming coach there. Thirty-seven students completed training as water safety instructors. More than half of these are now conducting Junior Life saving classes throughout the United States. Each freshman student at Duke is given the beginner test during orientation week. Reilly is the son of Mr. W. J. Reilly of Lauderdale street, Wall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wall of Oakland street and Currier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Currier of Bedford road.

Social Briefs
 A surprise party was given last Saturday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. John F. Hollister in their home on Bates street, by Mrs. Hollister's brother, Robert J. Muldary of Adrian. The Hollisters will leave this week for a Georgian Bay cruise.
 Bride-elect Alice Mary McHugh was honored at a miscellaneous shower last Sunday afternoon hosted by Mrs. James N. Motechall of Oak Pointe. Miss McHugh's marriage to Richard J. Maher will take place on August 26 at Holy Name church.
 Continuing through this week will be parties honoring Miss Marjorie Velmeyer who will marry Richard Wibol on August 26. Mrs. Walter Naas and Mrs. Harry Weiting gave a kitchen shower yesterday in the Naas home. Today, Mrs. John F. Cole will fetter Miss Velmeyer with a luncheon at the Detroit Golf club and Mrs. Thomas Usher, Jr., is giving a shower at the Oakland Hills Country club on Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hess of Ridgeville road are leaving soon for Salt Lake City where they will visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hess (nee Miss Henshaw), formerly of Birmingham. The Hesses will also make a visit to Yellowstone National park before they return next month.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nephew and daughter Nancy, of Westchester Way are enjoying a month's stay at the family cabin on Houghton Lake, near Kosciusko, Mich.
 Mrs. Elliott S. Kinney of Chesterfield road and daughter, Barbara, are in Hollywood, Cal., visiting Mr. Kinney's brother, Clifford Kinney. The localities will spend some time in San Francisco as well as Los Angeles before their return the latter part of this month.

BRIDESMAIDS were the Misses Elizabeth Winston of Grosse Pointe, Erna L. Moore of Franklin and Sally Roseberry of Franklin. Their frocks were identical with garlands of yellow daisies in their hair and nosegay bouquets of the same flowers.
 A miniature of the bridesmaids, tiny Miss Judith Hawk was her cousin's flower girl. A floral wreath in her hair repeated the colors of her basket of mixed daisies.
DANIEL J. FLEMING of Pleasant Ridge was best man and seating the guests were David Mohr of South Haven, Donald Boerna of South Haven and a brother of the bride, Michael Nichols. Christ Church Guild hall was the setting for a reception following the ceremony, where Mrs.

Carnahan-Nichols Nuptials Repeated in Christ Church
 A wedding trip in the Muskoka Lakes region of Canada was the destination of the newly wed Carnahans, following their marriage last Saturday afternoon. The double ring ceremony was held at Christ Church, where Mrs. Carnahan donned a ballerina length gown of tulle lace, with tulle hat, toasty accessories and a corsage of brown orchids. Mrs. Carnahan, mother of the bridegroom, selected a light blue frock with lace insets, navy accessories and a pink orchid corsage.
FOR HER HONEYMOON, the young Mrs. Carnahan donned a navy blue and white ensemble with white accessories and white orchid. Upon their return, the couple will be at home in South Haven.
Former Resident Wed in California
 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. King of Diamond Springs, Cal., have recently announced the marriage of their daughter, Betty Worthey King, to David Ribolin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ribolin of Georgetown, Cal., former local residents of Beverly Hills. The ceremony was read in the Federated church of Placerville, Cal., on July 30. The couple will make their home in California.

MRS. CARNAHAN
 read in a 1 p.m. candlelight service by the Rev. Lawrence W. Pearson of the Rev. Robert J. Muldary of Adrian. The bride Miss Kay Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Nichols of Vincennes drive in Franklin, exchanged her vows with Rene Patrick Carnahan. He is the son of Mrs. Max W. Carnahan of South Haven, Mich., and the late Mr. Carnahan.
GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride was gowned in white nylon marquisette and chanelly lace fashioned in traditional lines. From her cap of chanelly lace, fell the French illusion fingertip veil which was bordered with the lace, and she carried a white orchid on a prayer book.
 As maid-of-honor, Miss Jeanne Carnahan, sister of the bridegroom, was gowned in aqua nylon marquisette styled with an off-shoulder fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Accenting her white gloves and shoes were a garland of white daisies in her hair and a daisy nosegay bouquet.

Local Musician Studies at Waring Workshop Session
 Mrs. Margaret H. Fishers, of Wallace street is spending a week at the Fred Waring Music Workshop, Shawnee-on-DeLaware, Pa., studying the choral, radio and television techniques of Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians.
 Mrs. Fisher is the director of vocal music at the Lincoln Junior High school in Pontiac.
 Fifteen hundred school, college, church, community and industrial music directors from every state and several foreign countries have attended the Workshop which Fred Waring established four years ago to develop better choral singing in America.
 SIX ONE-WEEK sessions of the Waring Workshop are being held this summer. The faculty is composed of Fred Waring and members of his professional staff with Dr. Lars Hoggard, his choral assistant, as Dean.
 The curriculum includes intensive rehearsals under the direction of Mr. Waring and Dr. Hoggard, exploration of choral repertory, program building, keyboard learning, visual program production, choral conducting techniques and discussion of plans for production in music activities.
 Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—the society editor about them.
