All White Wedding Followed By Home Garden Reception

In a double ring ceremony read last Saturday afternoon at Christ Church Cranbrook; by the Rev. Lawrence Pearson, Miss Barbara Alice Forster became the bride of William Norman Flemming.

Miss Forster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Charles Forster of Birmingham road and he is the son of Mr. Norman A. Flemming of Chicago, Ill., and the late Mrs. Flemming.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in imported tulle of chanely lace, fashioned in princess lines with fitted bodice and small pointed collar from which small lace-covered bows extended to the waist. Her long, fitted sleeves ended in points over her hands and flowing panels of lace and net formed the skirt and train.

HER FINGERTIP veil of silk illusion fell in points from a tiny brimmed cap of chantilly lace and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of Spaphyllum and phalaenopsis orchids.

Acting as matron of honor was Mrs. Carl Thomas Blauman of Birmingham. Her ballerina length white organdy gown was trimmed in red embroidery forming scallops along the hem of the skirt and was repeated on the bodice. A small matching bolero with cap sleeves and peter pan collar topped the frock.

She wore a small white organdy dutch-style cap and carried an arrangement of white anthurium and pothos leaves.

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Mrs. David Dutcher of Grand Rapids, Miss Barbara J. Bean of Somerset, Pa., Miss Carole Castricum of Grosse Pointe and Miss Jeanne Blinn of Birmingham, were gowned similar in fashion to that of the honor matron. They carried arrangements of red anthurium with pothos leaves.

James E. Bryant of Ann Arbor served as best man. Seating the guests were two brothers of the bride, Henry Charles Forster, Jr., of Grosse Pointe and Lloyd Mason Forster of Birmingham, Paul Morgan of Grosse Pointe and James Schiavone of Ann Arbor.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding a gay and reception in their Birmingham home, Mrs. Forster selected a floor length gown of delphinium four-button Station Wagon—smarter in its field—listing for $260 less than last year.

MRS. W. N. FLEMMING

purple and white orchid completed the ensemble. Aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. George A. Flemming, chose a floor length gown of dusty rose chiffon and lace with matching hat and orchid corsage.

The young Mrs. Flemming donned a white gabardine suit with navy blouse and accessories and orchid corsage for her wedding trip to Burt Lake in northern Michigan.

Upon returning, the couple will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Clifford B. Young Ends ROTC Training

CHAMUNTE AIR FORCE BASE, Ill.—Clifford B. Young was graduated Aug. 5 from the Air Force ROTC summer encampment here.

The course, which began June 25, was an intensive course in aircraft maintenance engineering including structures, fuel and electrical systems, jet and reciprocating engines, instruments and the like.

Upon receipt of his baccalaureate degree from Michigan State college, he will be qualified for a commission as second lieutenant in the air force reserve.

CLUB NOTES

As many members are away on their summer vacations, the Birmingham American Legion auxiliary will not hold its annual election of new officers until after the national convention, to be held in Grand Rapids August 24 through 27.

Business Women
The Birmingham Business Women's club will meet for a summer picnic on August 14 at the home of Gladys Heinze on Williams Lake. The afternoon and evening will be devoted to swimming and playing cards with dinner served outdoors. Chairman of the committee for the affair is Helen Hawthorne, aided by Louise Cobb, Betty House, Fern Thatcher and Muriel Kitchen.

Orchard Lake
Inter-club tennis matches will be held with the Pine Lake Country club at Orchard Lake on August 13 and Oakland Hills Country club at Orchard Lake on August 20. Arrangements have also been made for the annual Club Championship Open Tennis tournament.

At 10:00 a.m. last Sunday, members of the junior girl players drew for their partners from the senior women's group for the women's doubles tennis tournament, which was played off at 11:00.

The men's sailing standings show Spence and Alan Hopkins, Paul Penfield and Berry Ketchum occupying the first four positions and preparing for the Fall Championship series.
