She Finds A 12th Century American

Kit Scheifele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Scheifele, 176 Linden, poses beside a skeleton and pottery specimens she discovered in a test trench opened at the Point of Pines archaeological field school on the San Carlos Apache reservation, 200 miles east of Phoenix. Kit, a senior anthropology student at the University of Arizona, is establishing pottery phases to determine occupation periods of western areas. It is believed that this ancient resident lived during the 12th century and was buried, according to custom, in the trash and refusa area.

Water Request
 A petition by Fredrick G. Lambert, 1705 E. 14 Mile road requesting water service outside the city limits was referred to the city manager at Monday night's city commission meeting.

Gold Hats To Face Milwaukee Joy Farms Sunday

One of the top polo teams in the midwest, Joy Farms of Milwaukee, will invade the Detroit Polo field, 14 Mile and Middlebelt roads, Sunday afternoon to face the Detroit Gold Hats. This squad previously defeated the Milwaukee polo club, who downed the Gold Hats 9-6 last month. The probable lineup for Joy Farms will be Jack Kirby, Jimmy Tibball and Hag Falicher. These players feature a consistent and daring style of play which makes them ever dangerous to the opposing club. TAKING THE field for the Gold Hats will be Dave Williams, Captain Volney Bayley and Harold Troy. The game will be sponsored by the West Lakes Lions club, with proceeds going toward its fund for sight conservation and treatment. Besides the game, riding acts are also on the program. Last Sunday the Gold Hats defeated the Culver Military academy troopers 8-6 in a game which was in doubt until the final whistle. DON EZELL of the visitors was given a free shot on goal with five seconds remaining but it was inches off the mark and clinched the game for the Gold Hats. Top scorer was Bob Cameron of

Hills Announces School Calendar

School calendar for the next year has been announced by John Jacobs, superintendent of Bloomfield Hills schools. Classes will get underway Sept. 11 and teachers will meet a week earlier on Sept. 5 for the week-long pre-school conference. Other activities and holidays are: MEA district conference, Oct. 19-20; Thanksgiving recess, Nov.

August 17, 1950 THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC Page 3
 23-24; and Christmas holidays, Dec. 22-Jan. 2.
SECOND SEMESTER begins Jan. 29 and spring recess will be March 22-April 2. Commencement exercises are scheduled for June 14 and schools close the next day. The post-school conference will be June 18-22.
 Jacobs also said that bus routes will be substantially the same as last year except that in the Wing Lake area, the bus will take Lahser from Quanton to 14 Mile, because widening of Telegraph road is in progress.

Tree Removals
 Property owners will pay for the removal of two trees at 1838 Hazel street and 1583 Villa road, according to a decision at a public hearing on the matter Monday night in the Commission room of the Municipal building. Although deer, moose, elk, and caribou all belong to the same family, the caribou are unique in that both males and females bear antlers.
