Reveal Engagement Of Nancy Cutter At Party Saturday

At a cocktail party last Saturday afternoon, in her home, Mrs. Josephine G. Cutter announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Nancy Cutter, to Arthur Lathrop Kirby of Birmingham and New York.

Her fiance's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Kirby arrived here from Pelham Manor, N. Y. for the announcement party. For the affair, the bride-elect selected a cornflower blue cocktail-length dress fashioned with scoop neckline and a white chrysanthemum corsage. Miss Cutter was graduated from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where she was affiliated with Kappa Gamma Gamma sorority. Her fiance attended Yale university in Waterbury, Conn., and is a graduate of Yale university.

Couple On Wedding Trip Via Island, Duluth Cruise

Last Saturday evening, before an altar banked with white candles, gladioli, chrysanthemums and ferns, Miss Constance Ruth McGirr became the bride of Richard Earle Sholey.

Miss McGirr is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Adams of Reed City.

MRS. CURTIS ADAMS of Reed City was her sister's matron of honor. Her lavender pincushion was fastened with a shawl hertha pinned to the bodice and shirred pockets accented the southern shirt. Her fiance wore a hat of lavender mums and she carried a cascade of the same flowers with her. Another sister of the bride, Miss Patricia McGirr, served as maid of honor and carried an ensemble identical to that of the honor matron. Mrs. John D. Sholey of Hamilton, Ohio and Mrs. Robert Warner of Detroit were bridesmaids and the junior bridesmaid was Miss Sally Hofen of Lainesburg, Mich. All the attendants were fricked alike.

TINY RICK ADAMY, nephew of the bride, acted as ring bearer, carrying the rings on a large callie lily. John D. Sholey of Hamilton, Ohio, served as his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Fred Mason and Allen McGirr of Birmingham and Curtis Adams of Reed City.

A reception in the club parlor followed the ceremony, where Mrs. McGirr received the guests in a ballroom length gown of navy blue embroidered organza with navy and white accessories and a charming corsage.

The bridegroom's mother selected an all-weather gown with matching hat, white accessories and a corsage of American beauty roses. For her honeymoon cruise to Mackinac Island and Duluth, the new Mrs. Sholey chose a blue silk shantung suit with white accessories and a orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will reside in Vera Beach, Fla.

Reveal Troth of Student Couple

MARSHA PENFIELD

Her fiance is the son of Dean and Mrs. Everett Lee Hunt of Swarthmore, Pa. Both will enter their senior year at Swarthmore college this fall, where he is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. No wedding plans have been announced by the couple.

Parents Home Scene of Schlanbusch-Zahn Nuptials

Before a picture window banked with floral arrangements and pinks candles in her parents' Fairway drive home, Miss Sue Zahn became the bride of Lowell D. Schlanbusch.

Miss Zahn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Zahn and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle D. Schlanbusch of Columbus, Ohio.

The Rev. Piper of Columbus read the mid-afternoon ceremony on August 5.

THE BRIDE wore a ballerina length gown of rose beige chintilly lace and net with a bolero jacket of the lace. Her matching belt style hat held a finger-tip veil of the same hue and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and stephanotis centered with gladioli buds.

The bride's maid of honor was Miss Nancy Fields of Columbus; her gown was of brown marquisette over light beige satin and her Juliet cap was of matching net. Her bouquet was an arrangement of gold-shaded sweetheart roses with stephanotis.

THE TINY Misses Judith and Barbara Austin of Scarsdale, N. Y., served as their cousin's flower girls. Their identical dresses were fashioned of white organza with lace trimming and they carried bouquets of sweetheart roses and pink carnations.

William Histon of Columbus served the bridegroom as best man.

For her daughter's home wedding and reception, Mrs. Zahn selected a gown of pale aqua tulle with chintilly lace inserts and a corsage of thyrum lilies.

Summer Students To Present Play

At 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, the students of the City-Country Day camp in Bloomfield Hills will present the play, "Peter Pan" by James Barrie.

The production will be under the direction of dramatics counselor, Mrs. Harriet Berg with musical accompaniment from Tschakovsky's "Nutcracker Suite", by Miss Lillian Fox.

The patio of the City-Country school will provide a stage in the circular style.

Among the students carrying leading roles in the play are Mary Beth Shoka of Waukesha road as Peter Pan, Susan Furrell of Detroit as Wendy, Barney Cohen of Detroit cast as Tinker Bell and Roger Skully of Detroit in the part of Captain Hook.

New copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. The "early bird" usually gets the space.
