

Announce Wedding Of Miss Monroy To V. Trabucchi

On July 29, in Our Lady of La Salette church in Berkeley, Miss Marion Ruth Monroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Monroy, of Chapin street was united in matrimony with Valentino E. Trabucchi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Achille E. Trabucchi of Berkeley. The morning service was read before an altar banked by gladioli, with the Rev. Laval Landry, M.S., officiating. Miss Monroy, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported chantilly lace over satin.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Miss Dolores Monroy was her maid of honor and her other attendants were Mrs. Rose Trabucchi and Mrs. Rose Marie Detmore. Alfonso Trabucchi attended his groom as best man and the guests were seated by Henry Trabucchi, brother of the bridegroom, and Albert S. Monroy, Jr., brother of the bride. A later reception was held at the new Carpenter's Hall in Berkeley. The couple will reside in their new home on Humphrey avenue in Birmingham.

Deadline for society club news is noon each Monday.

Miss Braley Wears Mother's Heirloom Lace Wedding Gown

Tall white candelabra with vases of white chrysanthemums and gladioli formed the setting at Trinity Methodist church in Highland Park last Saturday, for the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Ann Braley to William Owen Armstrong.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Braley of Riverside drive, formerly of Highland Park, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton W. Armstrong of Birwood avenue in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Paul Morrison officiated in the eight o'clock evening ceremony. THE BRIDE wore her mother's heirloom lace and ivory satin gown which was accented with pearl trimming. Her illusion veil fell from a lace and pearl crown-effect headpiece and she carried a shower arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis.

Her honor attendants were a sister, Mrs. Norma R. Barnes as matron of honor and a niece, Miss Lucile Marie Barnes as junior bridesmaid. Both were gowned in green and carried baskets of flowers in pastel shades.

A COUSIN of the bride, Miss Mary Fran Brown and Miss Jean Rice, served as bridesmaids, wearing contrasting flocks of yellow and carrying basket floral arrangements.

Best man for the ceremony was LeRoy Donald Michael and the guests were seated by Norman R. Barnes and Donald Ballard of Ypsilanti.

A reception for 175 guests followed at the home of the bride's parents on Riverside drive, for which Mrs. Braley chose a rose-beige gown of lace and nylon with matching hat and shoulder spray orchid corsage, while the bridegroom's mother selected an aqua and pink chiffon gown, matching hat and orchid corsage.

THE COUPLE left on a Great Lakes cruise, taking their car on the boat for motoring to resorts in the north. The bride and Mrs. Armstrong will return in ten days to Detroit, where their apartment is in residence.

The bride is a graduate of Albion college where she was a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music fraternity, and was also graduated from the National College of Education in Chicago. He is a senior student at Wayne university.

THE RIGHT COMBINATION

The answer to that frequently asked question, "Can I mix furniture of different styles and periods effectively?" is an emphatic YES! But it must be done discriminately. There should be a relationship of feeling in the styles that are combined to present a sense of unity. For instance, in formal groupings, Chip, pentail and Adam pieces mix well with Louis XV. They all have an affinity in line and design, all have rich mahogany or walnut satin finishes that call for the luxurious fabrics associated with formal rooms.

Pennsylvania Dutch blends effectively with provincial, Early American in informal groupings . . . both naturally all themselves with homespun materials—gingham, chintz or sailcloth.

Always place pieces together that are proportionate in scale. Small delicate chairs near small tables and chests. Large tables with huge davenport. Avoid monotony by not using equal amounts of the same periods. Note how the one Modern cabinet-combination in bleached mahogany gives smart accent to traditional room sketched above. Simple lines of lounge chairs and traditional mahogany table are repeated in Lawson sofa. Entire room is unified by simple color scheme of green and yellow.

Come in and let us help you choose furnishings that will combine harmoniously with those you already have.

3 good reasons why you'll go for MERCURY

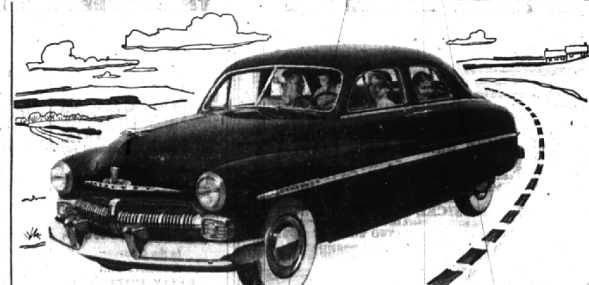

1. You get the right power!

When you want to go up—you go UP in Mercury! The big, V-type, 8-cylinder, made-only-for-Mercury engine is just right for the high ones! And it puts you right on top with economy, too. One reason why Mercury is "America's No. 1 Economy Car" today!

2. You get the right riding comfort!

Six "big ones" can travel comfortably in Mercury. It's that big—that roomy! And so quiet! You can travel more miles a day with ease and comfort—in Mercury! Try it!

3. You get the right roadability!

You never felt such a big car handle so easily! This brassy Mercury takes curves . . . rough roads . . . as though they didn't exist. And it slips into parking spaces other cars are forced to pass up. Go for a ride—and see what we mean when we say "you'll go for Mercury!"

Don't miss the big television ad, "FOAST OF THE TOWN," with Ed Sullivan. See your local newspaper for time and station.
