

Customers' Corner

Every housewife who wants to get the most good food for her money should ask herself these questions about her food stores:

Are prices low on all items every day in the week?

Is the price plainly marked on each item?

Is the quality high?

The answer should always be "yes" at A&P. If it isn't, we want to know about it.

Former Resident Married In New Orleans Cathedral

Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Shaw of Inverness Plantation, Miss., formerly of Grand Rapids, Mich., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Sally To Carter Lewis George on July 25.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. George of New Orleans, formerly of Birmingham.

The wedding ceremony was held at 11:30 a.m. in the rectory of St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, with the Rev. F. James Longenecker officiating.

Following the service, a family wedding breakfast was held at the Vieux Carre restaurant, where the table was decorated with a mountain of white flowers and tall white tapers.

While taking her vows, the bride wore an afternoon dress of oyster white imported linen and lace, fashioned with a cowl neckline and soft flared skirt. A smart matching felt hat held her befrill veil and her corsage was of dark crimson roses.

Attending her sister as maid of honor, Miss Shaw wore a light green linen frock with a bright collar topped the fitted bodice and a full, flaring skirt. Her small hat was of natural straw and she wore a gardenia corsage.

SERVING the bridegroom as best man, was Lawrence Labovack of New Orleans.

After their marriage, the young Mr. and Mrs. George left to spend their honeymoon in Biloxi on the Gulf coast. Later they will go to Inverness Plantation for a month while the Shaws travel to Michigan.

In September, the couple will return to East Lansing, where the bridegroom will resume his studies at Michigan State college. He previously attended Tulane university in New Orleans.

THE BRIDE is a graduate of Gulf Park college in Mississippi and she was a student at Lake Forest Academy in Lake Forest, Ill., before attending Michigan State college last year.
