

Hopkinson-French Vows Solemnized In Home Ceremony

Miss Jacqueline French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde French of Holland street and Stanley Hopkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hopkinson of North Woodward street, exchanged their marriage vows in a home candlelight service last Saturday night.

Approximately 50 relatives and friends gathered at the home of the bride's parents to witness the informal ceremony. The Rev. Reginald Becker of the Embury Methodist church officiated in the double ring ceremony at 8 p.m.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father—the bride wore a white sheer ballerina length dress over taffeta with tucked bodice and tiny yester pan collar. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Mrs. Cora Germain, Jr., aunt of the bride, served as her matron of honor. She was gowned in yellow tulle, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and wore a corsage of rubrum lilies.

Fred Hopkinson, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and soloist for the ceremony was Mrs. Alexander Lotero of Bannaville street.

DECORATIONS for the wedding were bouquets of garden flowers which banked the brooches. For her daughter's wedding and following reception in the home, Mrs. French chose an afternoon frock of sheer pink print and wore a corsage of yellow rose buds and daisies. Mrs. Hopkinson, mother of the bridegroom, selected a yellow sheer ensemble with a corsage of rubrum lilies.

The couple left for a brief honeymoon in Port Huron, following which they will make their home in Birmingham.

AMONG the out-of-town guests from Canada were Mr. and Mrs. John Mahoe, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Munn and family, Carlton Munn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkinson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Munn, all relatives of the bridegroom. Coming from Flint, was a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Mildred Peck and children.

Miss Boughner Wed Saturday In Candlelight Ceremony

The marriage vows of Miss Barbara Louise Boughner and Charles Earle Martin were solemnized in a 7:30 candlelight service last Saturday evening.

Miss Boughner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Boughner of Oakland avenue and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Martin of Arcadia avenue in Detroit.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated in the double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian church.

THE BRIDAL GOWN of white chantilly lace over taffeta was fashioned with a fitted bodice, small tarrack collar, cap sleeves and trimmed with a row of tiny matching buttons accenting the bodice.

The bride's three-tier silk illusion veil was caught in a satin coronet style headpiece which matched her satin slippers and she carried an arrangement of white roses and larkspur.

A matron of honor, Mrs. John Cook of Ann Arbor was gowned in white lace over taffeta with a tiny stand-up collar, fitted bodice and cap sleeves.

Both attendants wore a coronet headpiece of blue satin with matching slippers and carried bouquets of pale pink roses and blue asters.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Bernard Link of Detroit and Richard Centre of Wy-

MISS BARBARA ALDRIDGE GHETTI of Rutland road in Detroit, as bridesmaid, selected a frock identical to that of the honor matron.

Will-O-Way To Hold Current Production

The Will-O-Way thespian's production of "Life With Mother," which opened on July 25 and was scheduled for a one week run only, was completely sold out for last week, so will now run, due to demand, through Sunday, August 6.

The next play to be presented by the straw hats, "Heaven Can Wait," will have to do just that, we fear, while Tom deGratzen and Thelma Davis in the leading roles, carry on with the current production for the rest of the week.

Nevertheless, this next, rather aesthetic-type play will open August 9 for a regular two week run and each succeeding production will open and run on a two week schedule, for the remainder of the season.

MRS. CHARLES E. MARTIN and Robert Carpenter of Detroit seated the guests.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding following reception at the Community House, Mrs. Boughner was wearing a pale green lace and crepe floor-length gown with beige hat and accessories and a brown orchid as she received the guests.

Mrs. Martin selected a frock of pale rose lace with mist blue hat and accessories and purple orchid.

Before leaving for a wedding trip through northern Michigan, the young Mrs. Martin donned a navy and red linen suit with matching hat, navy accessories and orchid corsage.

Upon their return, the couple will reside on Bates street in Birmingham.
