Vacation Notes

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McKay of Wellington returned home after touring New England. They spent some time at the artist settlement at Rockport, on the seashore north of Gloucester, Mass. While at the settlement, Mrs. McKay attended an outdoor-studio class, painting local scenery.

The Paul Ziegelbauer's, of Franklin Road, and their son John made the trip to Bailey Island, Maine, their holiday headquarters. They were joined there by Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Sausser and son Bruce of Detroit, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Broadwater of Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Anderson, son Bruce and his guest Tommy Bryant, who left in June for this year, have concluded their extensive tour. Travelling to the coast by way of the southern route, their trip included a week's visit as the guests of Mrs. Anderson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sigrid Von Ziebrecht, at Long Beach, Calif.

Returning by the northern route, they spent two weeks at the summer place at Covington, Mich., in the upper peninsula before returning to their 1314 1/2 Road home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nell and daughter Barbara, of Woodside drive, vacationed in the south. They spent a month at a cottage on the beach near Cocoa, Fla.

The Clifford Baugh's of Inkster Road report a pleasurable week in the Smoky Mountains with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roseberry and daughter Sue, staying at the Cabins-in-the-Sky near Gatlinburg, Tenn. While there, they joined the Burt Johnson's of Lahser Road, who have a year-round cottage nearby.

The Rudolph Hanson's have returned from a tour of northern Michigan which included a stay at Big Lake Resort, near Gaylord. They entertained last Sunday as dinner guests the Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Surawski and daughter Marcia, of Standish, Bert Wood and Mrs. Mildred Wood.

Back from the west coast is Thomas H. Risk of Wellington road. He has been attending the business representative meeting at Los Angeles the past three weeks. Entertainment there included sailing at Catalina island.

Mr. and Mrs. Hi Dawson of Lahser road and children Donald, Diana and Karen, with the Indian hunting club near Munising, Mich. for a weekend jaunt. While there, Karen, who was seven last Saturday, was honored with a birthday celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Le Fontaine returned to their Lahser road home last week from a 10-day stay at the Grand hotel on Mackinac Island. They then had home guests, Mrs. Le Fontaine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Williams of Toledo and they entertained at dinner last Saturday in their honor.

Guests included the Westcott Faverty's and the Phillip Allard's. On Monday the Le Fontaine's, accompanied by the Williams, took the season's final cruise into Lake Erie on their boat Tannie, docking it at the Toledo Yacht club for the winter.

Shish-Kebab Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Smith of Romany Acres entertained at an outdoor charcoal-grilled Shish-Kebab dinner last Saturday evening in honor of their guests Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Seeber and family from Grosse Pointe.
