Quorton Xmas Plans Include School Plays

A play depicting the story of Christmas will be presented by the kindergarten and pupils of the first- and sixth grades of Quorton school Friday beginning at 2:30. Christmas carols will also highlight the program to which parents are invited.

On Dec. 18, members of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will present their program for parents and friends.

On Dec. 20 parties will be held in the various rooms with an exchange of gifts among the children.

TROY CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL NEWS

The Troy high school debating teams, participating in their first year of Michigan forensic contests, split a decision in a debate with Lake Shore high school, which has been in the conference for five years. The topic for debate was "Resolved, the American People Should Reject the Welfare State."

Troy's negative team, composed of Elizabeth Herveyer and Mary Haney, won over the affirmative team from Lake Shore. Troy's affirmative team includes Johanna Woolsey and Donald Piotrowski. The coach is Darrel Hackett.

THE TROY teachers' club held a Christmas party, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 12 at Big Beaver school. Greetings were given by the president, Mrs. Gladys Musselman.

Entertainment was provided by Miss Ruth Bamford, music teacher, who presented the Troy high school girls' club accompanied by Christmas carols were sung by the Miss Joyce Wade, school nurse, entire group.
