Yuletide Bride

MISS HADLEY
Mr. and Mrs. Newton F. Hadley of Warwick drive in Beverly Hills have made life happier for many children in the public and private homes. Miss Hadley's fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blake of Lansing.

The young couple is planning a wedding for December twenty-third.

Children's Theater Reports Activities

The institutional program of the Children's Theatre of the AAUW, has made life happier for many children in the public and private homes.

F. D. Webb, chairman of the group, reports that any profit made from the annual series of plays presented by the theatre has been used to buy equipment for these institutions.

The Oakland County Juvenile Home has received a movie camera, flinching mats and other sports equipment. This year these children will have new basketball uniforms and shoes.

MRS. WEBB ALSO HOPES to find people who are willing to donate used skis and skis for the youngsters.

Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Walter Skinner are contributing their time and talent each Wednesday evening at the Baptist Children's Home. Mrs. Skinner plays the piano and Mrs. Webb teaches singing and square dancing.

In this way, the children are given a means of self expression which is difficult for the busy staff members to provide.

THE DECEMBER MEETING of the Children's Theatre will be held at the home of Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey, Jr., on Brookdale boulevard at 1:15 p.m. on Wednesday, December 20.

To-day's program will consist of Christmas readings by Mrs. R. T. Cloonan.

Penguins Schedule Country Club Dance

The Penguin club is celebrating Christmas with its second dance of the season on Saturday night, December 16, at the Glen Oaks Country club.

To add to their gaiety, the Penguins are bringing guests to join in the festivities. The usual round of cocktail parties will precede the dance.

Among those playing host and hostess are Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Schuster and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Reht, serving cocktails to start off their Saturday evening.
