High School Fall Lettermen Honored At Pigskin Prom

By MARY RICHARDS

Greeted by the jingling of sleigh bells at the door, Baldwin students flocked to the Pigskin prom, honoring football and cross country lettermen, in Baldwin gymnasium last Saturday evening.

The gym was festively bedecked with evergreen and holly, with glittering snowflakes overhead suspended from the ceiling in the center of the room, was a huge wreath of mistletoe.

HIGH SPOT of the evening was the crowning of the queen,

Sally McKay, who was presented with a wreath of red carnations by student congress president Joe Bachman.

She was escorted to the royal sleigh by Gordon Shira, captain of the football team, and Ronnie Phillips, representing the cross country squad in the absence of Captain Bob Pope. The queen's date, who automatically became king, was Carver Hendrix.

The dance was sponsored by the Student congress with Ronnie Nightingale and his Rhythmaires providing music, and the refreshment concession was managed by the sophomore class.

General Chairman was Ronnie Phillips, Committee chairman were Marilyn Hart, publicity; Bob Pope, tickets; Jane Kohr, decorations; Mary Richards, programs; Nancy Wilson invitations; and Eleanor Hamil, clean-up.

THIS SEEMS to be a tough year for former Maple basketball captains. Chuck Murray captain of the University of Michigan team, missed the Toledo game and may miss others due to a case of glandular fever. THE DIAMONDBOY basketball team has a one-man team in Gray Smith who scored 50 points last Friday night against Lake Okeuch, Birmingham. All time single game record is 32 points scored by John McDonald against Rochester in 1939.

Local Swimmers Meet Hazel Park Here, Dec. 15

By ROY HORNE

With nine returning lettermen, a few other veterans from last season's team, and a crop of promising newcomers, the Birmingham swimming team opens its 1950-1951 season Friday night at 8, with a home encounter against the Hazel Park Vikings at Barnum pool.

Among the familiar names from last year missing from the roster are Dick Dean, Larry Miller, Frank Weaver, and Captain Dick Heigel. But Coach J. Jay Myers has able replacements for most of them, and the team will be especially strong in the 200 yard free style with Don Goldsmith returning for his third and last season.

IT SAYS HERE ...

ONLY FIVE MORE school days remain until Christmas vacation. We see everyone bustling around trying to catch up on things.

Since rush parties are so in the near future, all of the clubs held very long meetings last weekend. The CTA club even took dinner, and ate during discussion. The CTA's will hold a bake sale at Campbell's village store this Saturday.

KST and Tri-A both have dances in December. The Tri-A's will present their Match-Me-Up Dec. 27 at the Community house. Come on, girls, don't be shy, get your dates now! KST is now polishing plans for their New Year's eve dance.

THE PIGSKIN PROM, honoring the football and cross country squad, proved a big success. Dancing under the stars and Christmas lights were Gordon Shira, Patti Layland, Woody Dave, Peggy Parker, Joe O'Connor, Sandra Tischer, Bill Berard, Mary Adams, Chuck Olin, Bonnie Dayton, Art Fairbanks, Sara Stringer, John Bowie, Jane Kohr.

Russ Sanders, Linda Landman, Dave Hunt, Mary Drake, Lance Minor, Carolyn Snyder, Dave Bowman, Linda Miller, Joe Barkman, Sally Wilkinson, and our own king and queen Carver Hendrix and Sally McKay. We saw everyone having a wonderful time.

Avoid the rush, kids! Show early for those dates to the New Year's Eve dance sponsored by KST. Don't miss out on the biggest dance of the year. See you next week for the latest news.
