

Yule Season Filled With Varied Social Fetes for Students

Many of the younger localities have already initiated the Yule season with a wide variety of social affairs...

Announce Troth

MISS ROMA WOODWORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Loren B. Woodworth of Grand Rapids announce the engagement of their daughter, Roma, to Ralph W. Appell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Appell of West Lincoln road in Birmingham.

Allied Youth Ball

Tickets for "Prelude to '51", the Allied Youth's annual New Year's Eve ball, may be purchased in Birmingham from Miss Ann McVay of 115 Wilminton drive.

Social Briefs

Mrs. Jerry P. Neff entertained on Tuesday afternoon at a Christmas tea in her Kenneway road home...

Mrs. Arthur E. Ulrich is leaving tomorrow, December 22, for a holiday visit with her family in Hartford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Connolly will entertain at cocktails on December 24 in honor of their holiday guest, Lord Charnwood of London, England.

An open house will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warner, in their home on December 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bay will be host to a group of friends for a Sunday morning breakfast on December 24 in their home on East Lake road.

Plans are being made by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Breesch for an open house in their Long Lake road home on Christmas Day.

Arriving last Thursday, Mrs. Basil Manly of Washington, D.C., will spend the holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Briggs, Jr., of Martell drive.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Knecht of Bloomfield Hills have invited a group of friends of the A. B. Outmans, of Summit, N. J., to their home for a social gathering on December 24.

The LeGrange Dady family is expecting Mrs. E. C. Howell and her son Ned, to arrive from Winnetka, Ill., to spend the Christmas week with them in their home on Fairfax road.

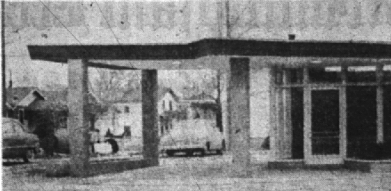

Mrs. Nathaniel T. R. Burgevin, the former Margot Yaw, arrived by plane from Petersburg, Va., to spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Yaw and sister Betty, who arrived last week from Mills village, Mr. Burgevin will be in time to spend Christmas and New Year's Day with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. LeMessurier of Bloomfield Hills will host a New Year's party in honor of Mrs. R. H. Stehm of Madison, Wis., who will be their house guest that weekend.

A rehearsal dinner was given last Sunday evening, December 17, at East and Hounds, by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander R. Rindkopf of Winnetka, Ill., in honor of their son, William D. Rindkopf and his holiday bride-elect, Miss Patricia Page of Dorchester road.

Joseph Hinshaw, Jr., of Morris-town, N. J., and Robert Hinshaw of Yacon City, Miss., arrived last week to spend a few days with their parents, the senior Joseph Hinshaw of Punvalley road in Bloomfield Hills.

Birmingham Cleaners Open Modern Plant

The Birmingham Cleaners recently opened for business in a new modern dry cleaning and shirt laundry plant at the corner of Woodward and Adams. The cleaning establishment has the latest machinery and the plant offers four-hour service at no extra charge for both dry cleaning and shirts.

Plant manager is Thomas Walker, graduate of the dry cleaning institute in Maryland and former instructor at the Motor city dry cleaning school in Detroit. Owner is Harold M. Kalbfleisch, who formerly operated the Pioneer auto car wash.

News About GIRL SCOUTS

AT A RECENT MEETING of Girl Scout Troop 26 of Pierce school the girls elected their new officers. Karen Keene is the new president, Christine Hall, treasurer and Nancy Parsons secretary.

SCRIBE FRANCES CADY announces the following activities of troop 2, seventh grade Intermediate Girl Scouts, meeting at Barham school under the leadership of Mrs. Carol Meyer.

IN NOVEMBER the troop made a trip to the Jack Miner bird sanctuary at Kingsville, Ont. There they saw wild ducks and geese that have been coming to this sanctuary since 1909, when Jack Miner first started banding them.

A PARADE OF TOYS featured the Adams school all-troop Christmas meeting held last Tuesday evening in the school auditorium, when the 150 Brownies and Girl Scouts of nine Adams and Tarry school troops gathered with parents and friends.

THE DOUBLE PURPOSE of such a meeting was to have a get-together of all the troops, and to put into practice the Brownie and Girl Scout law "To Help Other People".

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

Winfield-McKay Nuptials Solemnized in Home Rites

In an eight-thirty ceremony on Monday evening, December 18, Miss Kern Elizabeth McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald McKay of Westwood drive, exchanged her marriage vows with MARILYN COOK, reporting activities of troop 33, fifth grade Intermediate Girl Scouts at Pierce school, tells us that she and her Christmas party at Mrs. F. F. Sweet's home, where they will exchange gifts.

A COMPLETE HOUSECLEANING by all Holy Name troops was given at Alumni house last fall after the parish gave this building to the Girl Scouts for their meetings.

FOURTH GRADE BROWNIES of troop 36, under Mrs. Frank Matzra, Mrs. William Thorburn and Mrs. Glenn Hogsten, held a tea for their Parents at Alumni house. The center of all eyes was a sugar plum tree made by the Brownies.

TROOP 19, under Mrs. T. W. Lyndon and Mrs. John Adams, has made bright red hiking knapsacks, so if Springdale Park residents think they see hunters in their neighborhood, it will be these fifth grade Intermediates of Holy Name school.

TROOPS 31 AND 17 led by Mrs. J. H. Savage, Jr., Mrs. E. J. Laine and Mrs. C. J. Link, have been using the Science Museum of Cranbrook for work on Rock and Mineral badges. In two different occasions they visited the observatory and used the telescope under the guidance of Dr. William Schultz of the museum.

Jupiter and the moon were on hand last night, the girls attended Mr. Schultz lectures, and passed their Star badges.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

Winfield-McKay Nuptials Solemnized in Home Rites

In an eight-thirty ceremony on Monday evening, December 18, Miss Kern Elizabeth McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald McKay of Westwood drive, exchanged her marriage vows with MARILYN COOK, reporting activities of troop 33, fifth grade Intermediate Girl Scouts at Pierce school, tells us that she and her Christmas party at Mrs. F. F. Sweet's home, where they will exchange gifts.

A COMPLETE HOUSECLEANING by all Holy Name troops was given at Alumni house last fall after the parish gave this building to the Girl Scouts for their meetings.

FOURTH GRADE BROWNIES of troop 36, under Mrs. Frank Matzra, Mrs. William Thorburn and Mrs. Glenn Hogsten, held a tea for their Parents at Alumni house. The center of all eyes was a sugar plum tree made by the Brownies.

TROOP 19, under Mrs. T. W. Lyndon and Mrs. John Adams, has made bright red hiking knapsacks, so if Springdale Park residents think they see hunters in their neighborhood, it will be these fifth grade Intermediates of Holy Name school.

TROOPS 31 AND 17 led by Mrs. J. H. Savage, Jr., Mrs. E. J. Laine and Mrs. C. J. Link, have been using the Science Museum of Cranbrook for work on Rock and Mineral badges. In two different occasions they visited the observatory and used the telescope under the guidance of Dr. William Schultz of the museum.

Jupiter and the moon were on hand last night, the girls attended Mr. Schultz lectures, and passed their Star badges.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

THE GIRL SCOUT CHRISTMAS dessert party for all troop leaders was held last Saturday at the Community House, with members of the Business Women's club as guests.

Cavell's Campers To Meet for Annual Holiday Reunion

Recollections of camp experiences will be shared on Wednesday, December 27, when the annual holiday reunion for the YWCA's Camp Cavell takes place.

"Do you remember..." A phrase that will start most of the conversations of the Cavell girls gathering at Central Branch Y.W. of from 2 until 5 p.m. next Wednesday afternoon.

Parents and friends of the former campers are invited to the reunion and featured entertainment will be Carol Singler and a showing of the Christmas movie, "The Littlest Angel."

Invitations have been mailed to 47 former campers, according to Virginia deGraffenried, who has succeeded Maryjorie Magee, recently retired, as Camp Cavell director.

Girls from this area who have received invitations to the reunion include Judith Bromley of North Woodward avenue, Barbara Woodson of Country Club drive, Patricia Barrum of Buckingham road, Catherine Dennis of Yorkfield drive, Alana Dodge of Sunfield road, Elmer Dodge of Sunfield road, Judith Neff of Kenneway, Anne Heidershott of Banbury road, Judith Neff of Kenneway, Betty Paullette of Lakewood drive, Linda Sheehan of West Maple road, Virginia Thurman of Town and street, Adela Toepfer and Joan Wagner of Dorchester road.

field donated a forest green bathing suit with brown accessories and white rose corsage.

THE NEWLYWEDS will make their home in Chesapeake Falls, Mass., where he is stationed at Westover Air Force base.

MRS. A. H. WINFIELD

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Winfield of Valley Row in Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE WORE HER grandmother's ivory brocaded satin gown with lace accents on the long sleeves and the full skirt extended to floor length. Her Juliet cap, made from her grandmother's lace and trimmed in pearls, held a finger-tip veil of illusion. The Advertisement for Joseph W. Rattner, Charming Homes Built To Order, Builder of the New Birmingham Cleaners.

Advertisement for Thursday, Friday, Saturday shopping days.

Advertisement for Austin's Toys, Electric Trains, Figurines, Hobby Craft and Artist Supplies.

Advertisement for Hoover vacuum cleaners, featuring the Triple-Action Model 62.

Advertisement for Birmingham Cleaners, Really Fast Cleaning Service, 4 hr. service, Dry Cleaning, Shirts.