

Holiday Beckons Collegians

BY ALICE GRANT-WATTERS

This week, rather than having to travel all over the country "with the collegians," we found most of them right here at home, spending the holiday season with us!

Dick Mott arrived last week from the University of Colorado to spend a couple of weeks with his family, the F. H. Motts of Pilgram road. He'll return to his studies after the first of January.

Miss Katherine Ann Hood, who has been studying at Penn Hill Junior college in Chambersburg, Pa., arrives to spend Christmas with her parents, the Stanley R. Hoods of Charing Cross road.

A 17-DAY VACATION from Pennsylvania College for Women is being enjoyed by Miss Marilyn Beck who is in her senior year here. She's spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Beck of Oxford drive, until classes resume on January 2.

The Pretz family of Wing Lake has a gay holiday planned since Miss Suzanne C. Pretz arrived some by train on December 16 from Pinebrook, Leelanau school, where she is her freshman year of high school. Suzie is planning a reunion luncheon during the holidays for some of her former Kingwood school friends.

MISS JEANNE E. PRETZ came home by plane on December 16 from Connecticut college in New London, Conn., where she is in her senior year. During the holidays Jeanne will have a tea at her college and Kingwood friends.

C. Thoburn Maxwell II, arrived here by plane on December 15 from Princeton university in Princeton, N. J., where he is a sophomore student and has just won an annual athletic award in cross-country, having been a member of the Varsity team this fall. He will attend the Princeton Triangle show, "Too Hot For Today," on Monday evening at the Cranbrook-Kingwood Christmas formal Saturday evening, December 7.

Jeanne and Toie will have a group of friends at their home for scrambled eggs and coffee.

A GUEST IN THE PRETZ one at Wing Lake will be Rene Lafitree, a Mexican exchange student who attends Alma college and spends his holidays with the Pretzes. He goes north with them each year for their holiday skiing at Osage Ski Club in Gaylord, Mich., with the entire family, will attend the Princeton Triangle show.

The Birmingham contingent of Stephens college students arrived at weekend after a series of formal holiday balls in Columbus, Mo., preceding the vacation period.

LOCALITIES ARRIVING on the school's special train included Miss Mary Beathien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beathien of Buckingham road, Miss Margaret E. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy C. Thompson of Alhambra road, Miss Dolores Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Smith of Puritan road, Miss heba Sue Karlet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Karlet of each road and Miss Barbara Jean annum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker A. Hannum of every road.

MISS JEANNOT BARNES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell

The Misses Ruth Kadell and Catherine DeBasher, with Roland Watson and Bill Bones will be in town by the end of this week for holiday vacation from Fairview university.

WITH THE Collegians

Robert Littleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Littleton of Emmons street, was recently pledged to the University of Michigan chapter of Sigma Chi fraternity in Ann Arbor.

Bud Carrick of Fairfax road, a freshman at the University of Colorado at Boulder, has recently pledged Phi Gamma Delta fraternity on that campus. He will not return to Birmingham for the holidays but rather, will join his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Carrick, in Lauriedale, Fla.

David Sewell, son of Mrs. C. P. Sewell of Hill road, was recently arrived last Wednesday, December 13, from Proctor Academy in Andover, Vt., to spend the holidays at home.

Patricia Page Takes Vows Monday In Holiday Setting

Holiday arrangements of poinsettias and Christmas greens formed the background for the eight o'clock evening marriage of Miss Patricia Page and William Dewey Rindkopf, last Monday, December 18.

Miss Page is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain A. Page of Dorchester road and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Carroll Rindkopf of Wilmette, Ill.

Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated in the double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian church.

MRS. W. D. RINDKOPF

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Miss Janet Patton of Saginaw and Miss Patricia Nix of Detroit wore ensembles similar to that of the honor matron and carried muffs of red carnations and Christmas greens.

Richard Rindkopf of Wilmette served as his brother's best man and Roger Morgentstern with Dennis Barrett of Wilmette, seating the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and following reception at Rotunda Inn, Mrs. Page selected a gown of periwinkle blue sheer crepe with white flowered hat and blue veil, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

MRS. RINDKOPF, mother of the bridegroom, chose a frock of toast lace and crepe with gold hat and accessories and red carnella corsage.

Before leaving for a honeymoon through southern Indiana and Illinois, the new Mrs. Rindkopf donned a tan suit with dark green accessories, brown fur coat and green orchid corsage.

Upon their return, the younger Rindkopfs will make their home in East Lansing, Mich.

Gifts for Veterans

At the last meeting of the Birmingham N.O.M.S. club (Mothers Men in Service), Mrs. William D. Piazza of Birmingham boulevard donated a large basket packed with Christmas gifts for new veterans.

These gifts will be distributed by the club to men in the Veterans and Marine hospitals.

Naval Chapel Is Nuptial Setting For Local Couple

In a family ceremony read at the Great Lakes Naval chapel, Great Lakes, Ill., Miss Carol Louise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Miller of Yosemite boulevard, became the bride of Seaman Dwight Norman Eckert, U.S.N.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Eckert of Frank street and is a seaman recruit in the United States Navy.

Mr. Lt. J. E. A. Barry officiated in the one-thirty afternoon ceremony on December ninth.

The bride was attended by her matron of honor, Mrs. Patricia Atwood of Wayne, Mich., and the best man was Kenneth D. Friend, S/R.

THE BRIDE SELECTED an orchid colored cashmere suit with white velvet hat trimmed in orchid veiling. She carried a white orchid or a white prayer book.

Her honor matron wore a gaudy suit of slate blue with a purple orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a dinner for eleven guests was given by the bride's parents.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ASK YOUR CO-OPERATION

If it is necessary for you to exchange a Christmas Gift in any store, please do so by January 2nd

In some cases because givers did not have correct information as to size or some other detail, exchange may be necessary.

Please note that no exchanges of Christmas Gifts can be made after January 2nd, 1951

Abuse of the exchange and return privilege can cause a great deal of unwarranted expense. Therefore, as a matter of assistance to the merchants of Birmingham who wish to continue to make this service available to you, we ask your co-operation.
