SOME SAY,

... Christmas is but a symbol. A symbol with artificial meaning.

But to us, Christmas is very true . . . very real, a symbol that crystallizes into one brief season the opportunity to put aside everyday business routine and express our sincere best wishes to folks like you, whose friendly goodwill is so essential to firms-like ours.

May you have a good Christmas, and a New Year filled with the good things of life.

Sincerely,

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.

Snowball Carnival

The Lathrup PTA executive board met Thursday to discuss plans for the snowball carnival to be held in February. There will be no December meeting, as the school is holding a "Week of Carols" with all grades except kindergarten participating according to the publicity chairman Mrs. E. J. Willett.

Top $1,500

Southfield Goodfellows held the paper sale last week. Fire chief Alfred Krueck announced that over $1,500 was collected and that about 100 needy families in the township will receive clothing, fruit and toys this Christmas. Distribution will take place this week. A part of the collection will be put into a fund for future emergencies he said.

Holiday Party

The College Career club is having a holiday party Dec. 30 at the Clark residence with former president Stewart Clark as the host. Refreshments will be served.
