Old Fashioned Christmas Tree

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Lurkins of Franklin Park drive were hosts to a gathering of Pal Omega fraternity members and their wives at an old fashioned Christmas tree decorating party at their home last Saturday night. Guests, dressed in costume in the Christmas motif, brought ornaments copied from those used in the horse and buggy days to trim the tree. These included paper decorations, popcorn, cranberries and painted walnuts. Candles and holders over 50 years old were used so that all might recall the Christmas tree of yesterday.

Children's Parties
The annual Christmas party for Franklin youngsters, sponsored by the Franklin Community association, was held Tuesday evening at the town hall. Santa Claus was there, of course, and candy and gifts were provided for the children, who joined in the singing of Christmas carols.

Mrs. E. W. Williams of Ottawa lane will be hostess to 16 Wing Lake school children in the neighborhood at a Christmas party Saturday afternoon. For entertainment there was a grab bag, games, gift exchange and carol singing.

Holiday Notes
