WALNUT LAKE NEWSLETTER

Junior Big held its Christmas party Friday evening at the school. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKay. The kindergarten has been making decorations for the room and presents for Christmas.

The first grade has been practicing songs for the program and learning a number with bells and sticks. Bobby Braun is leader of the group. The second grade has made chains and bells for their Christmas tree.

The GOOD CITIZENSHIP contest in the third grade was won by Philip Emrich and Karen Harper and honorable mention went to James Alain, Corrine Sarlund, Bobby Sintz, Peggy Sloat and Sandra Sweet. Mrs. Moore said that all did very well.

The fourth and fifth grades have a miniature manger in their room and the pupils have made ornaments for their tree. Pamela Parkins and Jack Palmer, on their clarinet and saxophone, have accompanied the classes in their carolling.

The sixth graders have decorated their room and have been practicing for the Christmas program. Patty MacLennan sings a solo and Anne Fitzgerald, Sally Hanson, Peter Whims and Gordon Smith play in the instrumental group.

MRS. JANET JONES held the Teachers Christmas party at her home Thursday afternoon. All the teachers and special teachers and their guests attended the tea and the exchange of gifts.

Several of the large trees in front of the school have been taken down. One was damaging the roof and the others were too light to stay.

"The First Christmas" was the title of the program given at the school last night. It was presented by the music department under the direction of Mrs. Louise Smith and Robert Kutscher. Mrs. Gloria Edwards of the Art department designed the scenery and was assisted by members of the fourth, fifth and sixth grade. Ralph Fiebig was property chairman.

The instrumental part of the program was provided by Anne Fitzgerald, Sally Hanson, Pamela Parkins, Jack Palmer, Gordon Smith and Peter Whims.
