

Holiday Vows Solemnized In St. James Church

In an eight o'clock double ring ceremony last Thursday, December 21, Miss Jeanne Brooks Kiefer exchanged her marriage vows with Roland Gustaf Olin.

Miss Kiefer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Kiefer of room as best man and the guests were seated by Jack Moses, Keith Ege, John Gevajan, Jr., and George Pope, all of Birmingham.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding and following reception at the Birmingham Country club, Mrs. Kiefer selected a gown of burgundy lace with matching hat and gardenia corsage; while Mrs. Olin chose a royal blue crepe ensemble with matching hat and corsage of gardenias.

Before leaving for a wedding trip to Chicago, Ill., the new Mrs. Olin donned a red suit with black accessories and gardenia corsage.

UPON THEIR RETURN, the couple took up residence in their West Maple road home in Birmingham.

Fourth Birthday Party Scheduled By 'Y' Dec. 28

The Birmingham 'Y' will observe its fourth birthday at the club rooms of the First Baptist church Thursday, Dec. 28, from 1:30 to 4.

The program includes carol singing, group games, stunts, a quiz program for prizes, highlights of the past football season's games on sound film, and a travelogue film on Yellowstone park. Refreshments, including a birthday cake, will be served. Messengers can gain admittance by showing their cards, according to Ed Kirbert, local YMCA secretary. He added that a few guests' names remain and they can be secured at the 'Y' office at 144 West Maple.

Lions Fete Children At Christmas Party

It was fancy hats and balloons Wednesday at the Lions club meeting when members feted their children at the club's annual Christmas party.

Special entertainment for the youngsters, arranged by M. C. Truitt, features a magic act by Clare Cummings and the comedy team, "Chimp, the Fireman." William Science, lead the group in singing Christmas carols. About 100 members and children were present.

Trenton, capital of New Jersey, bought the city's site in 1714.

Former Resident Aids Christmas Sale

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 22—Versatile Jim Robe, formerly of Birmingham, Mich., turned out crayon portraits every 10 minutes during the annual Christmas sale sponsored by Delta Phi Delta, honorary society for College of Applied Arts students at the University of Cincinnati. His model is Miss Bessie Nicholas, freshman in the College of Business Administration at Cincinnati university.

A junior in the university's College of Applied Arts, Robe is the son of Mrs. Marjorie Robe, who resided in Birmingham prior to moving to Cincinnati.

St. Hugo Is Settling for Wilson-Baldwin Nuptials

Rev. Francis Stalk officiated in the high noon ceremony at St. Hugo of the Hills on Dec. 21, which united in marriage Miss Eleanor Frances Baldwin and Richard S. Wilson.

Miss Baldwin is the daughter of George Edward Baldwin of North Woodward avenue and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Wilson of Rochester, Mich.

THE BRIDE was gown'd in a white satin robe. The off-shoulder neckline was detailed with a seed pearl border extending across the top of the long sleeves and joined to a filmy round-necked yoke of tulle.

The white satin pleats in her skirt extended into a long court train. The bride's veil of illusion fell to the end of her train from folds of Chantilly lace which formed a wispaine veil over tulle, and she carried an arrangement of gardenias with stephanotis.

Miss Baldwin's two sisters were her honor attendants. As best man and the guests were seated by Don Baldwin, Bill Cunningham, Robert Nickoloff of Hixson, Minn., Jack Wiese of Kirkwood, Mo., with Larry and David Williams.

Following a reception at the Rotunda Inn, the new Mrs. Wilson donned a traveling suit of brown tweed with velvet trim and matching accessories.

THE COUPLE LEFT for a motor trip through the East and South before returning to divide their time between East Lansing, where the bridegroom is in his final year at Michigan State college, and their new home on East Square Lake road.
