TOM TRACY broke a ten-year scoring record of 72 points by racking up 12 touchdowns and four conversions for a total of 76 points. With the Detroit Free Press selections yet to be announced, Tracy has been chosen on the third team all state squad by both the Detroit News and The Times.

at Greenville, Coach Lloyd Cooper's old hometown and staying there for the night. Friday evening they will play Greenville high school, returning to Birmingham Saturday.

BILL DOWNEY, Birmingham football and basketball player of two years ago, received his freshman football numerals at the University of Michigan at the close of the season.

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT, Coach Cooper and various members of the basketball squad traveled to Port Huron where they saw the Huron game with Grand Rapids Union, won by the latter 38-37. Both teams are on the Maple schedule.

FOR THE FIRST time in the history of both schools, there will be no basketball game between Birmingham and Royal Oak this year. The Maples now meet the Aces in football only.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.

A MAPLE BASKETBALL squad of 10 men will leave Thursday, December 21, on the first extended basketball road trip in the school's history. The Maroons will encounter Grand Rapids Union Thursday night and then travel

Eight Lettermen Report for Maple Basketball Team

By DON HALPIN

Beginning his seventh year as head basketball mentor, Coach Lloyd A. Cooper, started practice Nov. 1 with the deepest squad he has ever coached.

Opening day of practice, saw eight lettermen out for the squad. As the end of football season the squad was strengthened by four more lettermen.

BARRY WALL, Matt Maloney, Art Fairbanks, Tom McKinley, George Clark, Barry Harper, Jerry Pike, Paul Phillips, Bill Wilkinson, Tom Tracy, Gordon Shira, Chuck Ganley, Joe O'Connor and Don Halpin make up the squad moving into December.

The team has lost Howard Livgrance, last year's big gun on the backboards, leaving coach Cooper with what he calls his biggest worry this year, Clark, Wilkinson and Phillips will be lost at mid-year graduation.

Coach Cooper stated, "Any sophomore expecting to come out for basketball should report to Bob Wyquist, reserve coach, this year. He should not wait until his junior year."

Members Named to Cranbrook Lower School Council

Albert Butzel, 912 Westwood drive, Birmingham and Teddy Smith of Pittsburgh, have been elected to the Cranbrook school lower school council for the current academic year.

This group governs the students affairs of the lower schoolers and acts as an advisory body to the housemaster. Five students are elected to this council each year, which is made up of both day boys and boarding students.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

FIRST AND SECOND GRADE: The pupils are busy making Christmas decorations for their room. They are also writing letters to Santa Claus. Ann Barrett celebrated her eighth birthday Dec. 1 and treated the class to cupcakes. Larry Crawford was eight years old Dec. 2.

The children have brought their baby pictures to school and they are displayed on the bulletin board. This week's helpers are sharing period, Leslie Barg; library, Carol Ann Barry; play corner, David Middlefield; pencil sharpener, Carol Gurney; dusting, Judy Helgeson.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADE: Class officers for the week are Suzanne Wallace, president; George Harris, vice-president; George Harris spent Thanksgiving week-end up north with his father. They closed their cabin for the winter.

The class has been studying various maps and the pupils have drawn maps of Michigan.

Book reports were given recently by Chuck Erlanson on "Ethan Allen and His Green Mountain Boys" and by Linda Stevenson on "Junior Miss."

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADE: Officers for this month are John Archer, president; Jim Garrison, vice-president; Anne Wilson, secretary.

The students are going to decorate the front window of the school. By the use of paper crayons designs applied with heat, the results will resemble a stained glass window. Fifth graders are making Christmas borders to decorate the room and the sixth grade music are compiling reports on Chile.

School Officials Attend Freshmen Conference at U-M

By JOE KUBACKA

Ross A. Wagner, Baldwin principal; Mrs. Carol Darling, girls' counselor; and Larned Goodrich, boy's counselor, represented Birmingham at the 22nd annual University of Michigan Principals-Freshman conference in Ann Arbor recently.

With 300 visitors from 150 high schools and nine junior colleges present, the conference featured numerous discussion groups and interviews. Personal and group interviews, with 1400 students were arranged.

The main task of the Birmingham delegation, was interviewing the 12 freshmen from Birmingham attending the university. Wagner reported that most of them are making a satisfactory adjustment.

THIS WEEK'S PTA-APPROVED MOVIE

This week's PTA approved movie will be "Devil's Doorway" starring Robert Taylor. This western film will be shown at the Saturday matinee at the Birmingham Theatre.

General display advertisement deadline is 5 p.m. each Tuesday.
